The Self and Society in Aging Processes Carol D. Ryff, PhD, Victor W. Marshall, PhD, 1999-06-23 This volume focuses on the experience of growing old as it is linked to societal factors. Ryff and Marshall construct this macro view of aging in society by bridging disciplines and bringing together contributors from all the social sciences. The book is organized into three sections: theoretical perspectives, socioeconomic structures and contexts of self and society. Leading psychologists, anthropologists, gerontologists and sociologists present theoretical and empirical advances that forge links between the individual and the social aspects of aging.
