Poets on the Road Maureen Owen, Barbara Henning, 2023-06-06 Calling to mind Basho's late life journeys through the backcountry of Japan two women poets in a well worn Honda hit the road for a legendary pilgrimage in a far flung pre pandemic landscape of American poetry. Although a road trip across North America calls to mind Jack Kerouac's youthful meanderings of self discovery this reading tour was more in the manner of Basho's late life journeys through the backcountry of Japan. The road trip was in a sense a pilgrimage of reengagement with their calling as poets and a chance to reacquaint with like minded friends old and new in a far flung landscape of American poetry. Venues would include upscale bookstores coffee houses museums legendary used bookstores botanical gardens university classrooms art centers and artist coops in short a unique sampling of poetry environments tracing an arc across the Southern States the Southwest and up the West Coast before hooking back to the Rockies. Framed as a personal challenge the poets hit the road much in the manner of itinerant preachers and musicians lodging at discount motels funky hostels Airbnbs and with friends along the way. Adding a social media touch Maureen and Barbara created a blog of their tour so that friends family hosts and fellow poets might also share in their adventure from the Introduction by Pat Nolan Lonely Planet California's Best Trips Brett Atkinson, Amy C Balfour, Andrew Bender, Celeste Brash, Jade Bremner, Michael Grosberg, Ashley Harrell, Mark Johanson, Andrea Schulte-Peevers, Wendy Yanagihara, 2022-02-15 Discover the freedom of open roads while touring California with Lonely Planet's California's Best Trips your passport to up to date advice on uniquely encountering California by car. Russian River or even just The River they're talking about the region of redwoods and riverbanks in Sonoma County between Forestville and Jenner celebrated since the late 19th century as a paradise for camping and fishing. Captured here in over 200 vintage photographs are the area's settlers, stores, festivals, resorts, and beaches attractions that have drawn Bay Area tourists for over a century. Native Americans camped and fished along the lower River but it was the potential for lumbering that drew the first White settlers and in the 1870s led to the building of railroads. Towns formed, resorts and businesses sprang up and the River fell into a seasonal rhythm of catering to summer visitors. Spanning over 150 years this book documents the events and attractions of the lower Russian River including the towns of Forestville, Rio Nido, Guerneville, Monte Rio, Duncans Mills, Cazadero, and Jenner.

Tales of the Russian River John C. Schubert, 2013-03-26 The Russian River has drawn tourists to its colossal redwoods, picturesque seashore, and idyllic resorts for more than a century. This collection of John C. Schubert's Stumptown Stories columns relates the history of this California river valley through in-depth research and firsthand stories. Ride the first train to chug across the Hacienda Bridge and wave farewell to the town's last train in 1935. Swing around in the many dance halls to the big bands of the 1930s, 40s, and 50s. Let the entertaining stories behind once stately now hidden landmarks carry you into Stumptown's past. Reconnect over coffee at Pat's Cafe and discover the rich history that formed the Russian River's communities.
