Duris, 2023-09-21 Presents essential facts on how to identify diagnose treat and manage the symptoms of the 10 officially recognized personality disorders Feeling Good by Doing Good Christopher J. Mruk, 2018-07-19 Coming to the defense of self esteem as a valuable and measurable component of good mental health Feeling Good by Doing Good offers a new evidence based approach to defining understanding and increasing what is known as authentic self esteem Translating decades of research in the fields of self esteem humanistic psychology positive psychology and psychotherapy into everyday terms Christopher Mruk traces the definition of self esteem back to when it was first used to describe the value of doing that which is both just and right Seen this way self esteem is not just feeling good about oneself rather it comes from facing life s challenges in ways that demonstrate one s competence and worth as a person Casebook in Abnormal Psychology Timothy A. Brown, David H. Barlow, 2001 Using cases taken from the authors case files or from case files of other working clinicians this casebook portrays the rich and arresting nature of disorders as they are displayed in real people Cases illustrate every major DSM IV category and are followed by a therapy outcome section which gives the rest of the story of what happened to these clients The authors draw on an extremely current and thorough database look at the multiple causes of disorders and incorporate developmental and cultural issues in each case Two complex cases are included without a diagnosis to give students an opportunity to come up with diagnoses on their own Primary Care Revisited Ben Yuk Fai Fong, Vincent Tin Sing Law, Albert Lee, 2020-06-03 This book adopts an interdisciplinary approach with a wide scope of perspectives on primary healthcare describing related principles care models practices and social contexts It combines aspects of development research and education applied in primary health care providing practitioners and scholars with a comprehensive overview of the current knowledge and delivery models of healthcare in community settings It covers the practical philosophical and scholarly issues pertinent to the delivery financing planning ethics health politics professional and technological development resources and monitoring in primary health care Contributors are from a diverse range of academic and professional backgrounds bringing together collective expertise in mainstream medicine nursing allied health Chinese medicine health economics administration law public policy housing management information technology and mass communications As such the book does not follow the common clinical practice or service based approach found in most texts on primary care The contents will serve as a useful reference work for policymakers researchers community health practitioners health executives and higher education students Abnormal Psychology Cengage Learning, David H. Barlow, 2017-04-27 This first South African edition of Abnormal Psychology An Integrative Approach offers students a local version of this well known text by David Barlow and V Mark Durand Balancing biological psychological social and cultural approaches the ground breaking integrative approach followed is the most modern scientifically valid method for studying abnormal psychology This edition successfully blends local and sophisticated research and an accessible writing style with the most widely recognised method of discussing psychopathology Going beyond simply describing different schools of thought on psychological disorders the authors explore the interactions of the various forces both global ones and those unique to South Africa and Africa that contribute to psychopathology Furthermore this South African edition includes a perspective on positive psychology and well being in the context of psychopathology
