including Web 2.0 is also addressed. Relevant examples such as controversies about positive evaluations of new medications that appear in peer reviewed journals the literature on Enron prior to the revelations that led to its collapse and the suppression of research that does not conform to dominant paradigms offered to indicate the need for a more sophisticated and nuanced approach to evaluating information. Practical suggestions for the evaluation of information are an integral part of the text. Why Blog? Sarah Pedersen, 2010-06-23.
