Rhodes, 2001-04-30 The tide of 1960s political upheaval while mistaken at the time by some as a unified assault against America carried out by revolutionaries at home and abroad was actually hundreds of locally constructed expressions of political discourse reflecting the influences of race class gender and local conditions on each unique group of practitioners This is a comparative study of how radicals at the local level staged displayed and ultimately narrated symbolic acts of performative violence against the symbols of the American system The term performative violence refers to a method of public protest whereby participants create the conditions in which their violent actions become a political text a powerful symbol with a strong historical precedent Recognizing the textuality of history this interdisciplinary examination deconstructs the performative violence within its historically specific and socially constructed contexts using four representative case histories of late 1960s and early 1970s activism These are the African American rioters in Kansas City the Black Panther Party in Detroit campus radicals at Kansas State University and activists at the University of Kansas Rather than focusing on the major clashes of the Vietnam era this book contributes to recent scholarship on the 1960s which has attempted to offer a more textured analysis of the era s activism particularly its political violence based on more local studies      The American Volunteers with the Allies Paul-Louis Hervier, 1918      American Decorations (1862-1926) Volume 1 The Office of the Adjutant General of the Army, 2012-04-02 Volume 1 of 2 A Complete List of Awards of the Congressional Medal of Honour the Distinguished Service Cross DSC and the Distinguished Service Medal DSM Awarded under Authority of the Congress of the USA 1862 1926 Details on each recipient include place of birth place of residence on entry into the service where the award was won
