that proliferated in the era of 9/11 and the war on terror. In this second edition Green brings the reader up to date examining the Islamophobic rhetoric of the 2016 US presidential election and the ongoing success of populist and far right parties in Europe. Green provides updated data on the rise of anti-Muslim legislation for example the Muslim ban in the United States and a wave of full face veil bans in Europe as well as the rise in anti-Muslim hate crimes on both sides of the Atlantic since 2015. This important book is essential reading for anyone who wants to better understand current views of Islam and to work toward meaningful peace and understanding between religious communities.

The Cambridge Companion to Religion and Terrorism James Lewis, 2017-07-25 Does religion cause terrorism? This volume presents a range of theories and case studies that address this important issue.

American Cinema of the 2010s Dennis Bingham, 2021-12-10 The 2010s might be remembered as a time of increased polarization in American life. The decade contained both the Obama era and the Trump era and as the nation's political fissures widened so did the gap between the haves and have-nots. Hollywood reflected these divisions choosing to concentrate on big franchise blockbusters at the expense of mid-budget films while new players like Netflix and Amazon offered fresh opportunities for low budget and independent filmmakers. As the movie business changed films ranging from American Sniper to Get Out found ways to speak to the concerns of a divided nation. The newest installment in the Screen Decades series American Cinema in the 2010s takes a close look at the memorable movies, visionary filmmakers and behind-the-scenes drama that made this decade such an exciting time to be a moviegoer. Each chapter offers an in-depth examination of a specific year covering a wide variety of films from blockbuster superhero movies like Black Panther and animated films like Frozen to smaller budget biopics like I, Tonya and horror films like Hereditary. This volume introduces readers to a decade in which established auteurs like Quentin Tarantino were joined by an exceptionally diverse set of new talents taking American cinema in new directions.

The Virginia Quarterly Review, 2020 American Cinema in the Shadow of 9/11 Terence McSweeney, 2016-12-05 American Cinema in the Shadow of 9/11 is a ground-breaking collection of essays by some of the foremost scholars writing in the field of contemporary American film. Through a dynamic critical analysis of the defining films of the turbulent post-9/11 decade the volume explores and interrogates the impact of 9/11 and the War on Terror on American cinema and culture. In a vibrant discussion of films like American Sniper 2014, Zero Dark Thirty 2012, Spectre 2015, The Hateful Eight 2015, Lincoln 2012, The Mist 2007, Children of Men 2006, Edge of Tomorrow 2014 and Avengers: Age of Ultron 2015 noted authors Geoff King, Guy Westwell, John Shelton Lawrence, Ian Scott, Andrew Schopp, James Kendrick, Sean Redmond, Steffen Hantke and many others consider the power of popular film to function as a potent cultural artefact able to both reflect the defining fears and anxieties of the tumultuous era but also shape them in compelling and resonant ways.

The New American War Film Robert Burgoyne, 2023-10-10 A look at how post-9/11 cinema captures the new face of war in the twenty-first century. While the war film has carved out a prominent space within the history of cinema the twenty-first century has seen a significant shift in the characteristics that define it. Serving as a roadmap to the genre's contemporary modes of expression The New American War Film explores how in the wake of 9/11 both the nature of military conflict and the symbolic frameworks that surround it have been dramatically reshaped Featuring in depth analyses of contemporary films like The Hurt Locker Zero Dark Thirty Eye in the Sky American Sniper and others The New American War Film details the genre's turn away from previously foundational themes of heroic sacrifice and national glory instead emphasizing the procedural violence of advanced military technologies and the haptic damage inflicted on individual bodies Unfolding amid an atmosphere of profound anxiety and disillusionment the new American war film demonstrates a breakdown of the prevailing cultural narratives that had come to characterize conflict in the previous century With each chapter highlighting a different facet of war's cinematic representation The New American War Film charts society's shifting attitudes toward violent conflict and what is broadly considered to be its acceptable repercussions Drawing attention to changes in gender dynamics and the focus on war's lasting psychological effects within these recent films Robert Burgoyne analyzes how cinema both reflects and reveals the makeup of the national imaginary Mythos und Film Vincent Fröhlich, Annette Simonis, 2016 Mythen erfüllen im kulturellen Imaginären bis heute zentrale symbolische und kulturelle Funktionen was sich auch an ihrer filmischen Adaption und Neugestaltung zeigt Um die Mythenbildung in neuen Medien angemessen erfassen zu können bedarf es einer modifizierten analytischen Perspektive Schon Umberto Eco hat darauf hingewiesen dass moderne Helden wie Superman ein anderes Mythenprofil aufweisen als antike Heroen wie Herakles Serielle Figuren wie Dracula Sherlock Holmes oder Superman tendieren dazu mediale Grenzen zu überschreiten und konsolidieren gerade dadurch ihren Status als moderne Mythen Der neue Synkretismus der mythologischen Bilder überbietet in seiner Reichweite offenbar noch die spät antiken bis frühneuzeitlichen Mythenverschmelzungen Die Beiträge des Bandes dokumentieren die Faszination bestimmter filmischer Figuren Schemata Handlungsverläufe von mythologischem Format und ermöglichen die systematische Betrachtung ihres Oszillierens zwischen Hohenkamm und Popularkultur Cineforum, 2015 Proceedings of the United States Naval Institute United States Naval Institute, 2016 Disappearing War Christina Hellmich, 2017-02-03 The battles fought in the name of the war on terror have re ignited questions about the changing nature of war and the experience of war for those geographically distant from its real world consequences What is missing from our highly mediated experience of war What are the intentional and unintentional processes of erasure through which the distortion happens What are their consequences Cinema is a key site at which questions about our highly mediated experience of war can be addressed or more significantly elided Looking at a range of films that have provoked debate from award winning features like Zero Dark Thirty and American Sniper to documentaries like Kill List and Dirty Wars as well as at the work of visual artists like Harun Farocki and Omer Fast this book examines the practices of erasure in the cinematic representation of recent military interventions Drawing on representations of war related death dying and bodily damage this provocative collection addresses what's missing in existing scholarly responses to modern warfare in film studies as well as
