Amnesia's Destiny Tracy O'Neal, 2010-02-18 When Ryan proposed to Katarinia he never suspected that she would die in a fire that same night He left Pine Ridge the day they put her casket in the ground hoping to forget about the life he would have had which was snatched so prematurely from him If he had gotten to her house on time the candle that burned for him would have never set the house on fire After eight years of running from his demons he decided to go home and try to live again He never would have thought that on his way home he would stumble on someone that looked just like her Maggie never knew why no one had come looking for her Her only reasoning was that she had been an awful person With no family to speak of she stayed and worked at the Saloon she found herself in from her very first memory In her dreams though one man would come to her and show her a passion she knew she had never experienced Clinton spent the last eight years looking over his shoulder waiting for someone to come and find her When Katarinia refused his proposal he was infuriated so he left Pine Ridge to forget her but then Maggie was there to always remind him of her and she was his best kept secret yet
