Hutson,2017-06-08 Excerpt from The Beginnings of Civilization It may not be amiss to tell how I came to write this little book Works so much more scholarly appearing from time to time on one or another branch of the theme here dis cussed some persons may be disposed to te gard my venture as super uous if not pre sumptuous But the fact is I have sought in vain for a work even professing to cover just the field which it has been my aim to prepare for the use of the reader In trying to give my his tory classes some idea of the state of human ity before the dawn of history I have found myself compelled to draw one set of facts from the geologists and archaeologists an other from the students of myths and folk lore another from the special students of language and race and another from the very negations of the antagonists of each or all of these classes of scientific workers About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Pivot of Civilization (Classic Reprint) Margaret Sanger,2015-07-08 Excerpt from The Pivot of Civilization I dream of a world in which the spirits of women are flames stronger than fire a world in which modesty has become courage and yet remains modesty a world in which women are as unlike men as ever they were in the world I sought to destroy a world in which women shine with a loveliness of self revelation as enchanting as ever the old legends told and yet a world which would immeasurably transcend the old world in the self sacrificing passion of human service I have dreamed of that world ever since I began to dream at all Havelock Ellis About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The History of Civilization, Vol. 1 of 7 \(Classic Reprint\) Amos Dean,2016-10-06 Excerpt from The History of Civilization Vol 1 of 7 To fully comprehend the nature of a work to judge of it fairly we should be to some extent in sympathy with its author To appreciate his labors we should know the circumstances in which he was placed the disadvantages he had to overcome the obstacles he had to surmount the positions he filled his modes of thought his methods of study his fitness for authorship in temperament and character These we may gather in part from his book but only in part The writer of history deals with the acts of the outer world rather than with his inner self V He must therefore exhibit somewhat of the nature and tendency of his mind his Opinions and judgment He must breathe into it much of his own character yet from such imperfect gleanings we can form but a limited conception of the man It will not therefore be deemed out of taste to give a short sketch of the life of Prof Amos Dean the author of the present work By his many friends such a narration will be welcomed while it may not be devoid of interest to the general reader and student About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Records of Civilization
James T. Shotwell, 2018-03-22
Excerpt from Records of Civilization Source and Studies The selections have been made not for specialists but for those who are interested in general Hellenic culture. Nothing could be easier than to Suggest the lengthening or Shortening of passages and the addition or substitution of other selections. No two scholars could agree as to what is absolutely best for a volume of the kind and those who have cooperated in its preparation can only hope that it may in some degree contribute to an understanding of the spirit of ancient Hellas and add to the interest in her culture. History of Civilization, Being a Course of Lectures on the Origin and Development of the Main Institutions of Mankind (Classic Reprint) Emil

Reich, 2015-07-01 Excerpt from History of Civilization Being a Course of Lectures on the Origin and Development of the Main Institutions of Mankind By permission of the Board of Trustees and of the Faculty of the University of Cincinnati the author of the present book commenced to deliver a public course of lectures on the History of Civilization at the lecture hall of said University The first lecture was given on the 13th of November 1886 and with a few interruptions the course was continued on every Saturday The interest of the general public in the course increased so rapidly that it became a mere matter of necessity to rent a larger hall and thus after the fourteenth lecture the course was continued at the spacious hall of the Scottish Rite Church As a further manifestation of the unabating interest of the public the author was most urgently requested by the most competent people of the city to publish his lectures in book form A list of subscriptions more than sufficient to cover the considerable expenses of the publication was filled in very short time and the present book is a faithful copy of the lectures as delivered in the course In the circular submitted to subscribers the book was announced to extend to 400 pages the book however numbers over 550 pages and the author cherishes the belief that the additional 150 pages will not prove unwelcome to the reader The highly finished cuts have been selected and furnished by Mr Otto Reich of Cincinnati The course itself did not comprise an elaborate investigation into the institutions of modern times and the book therefore does not devote special chapters to the discussion of the social and political development of the last three centuries In every single lecture of the book however constant and occasionally very exhaustive reference is taken to institutions of modern countries more especially to those of the United States of America About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds
