

A photograph of a man with grey hair, wearing a tan shirt, crouching in a lush green forest. He is surrounded by several black bear cubs. One cub is on his back, another is to his left, and a third is partially visible behind him. The scene is set in a dense, green forest with sunlight filtering through the trees.

Smiling Bears Stephen Herrero, 2009 Annotation A zookeeper's extraordinary relationship with the bears she has rehabilitated and her insights into their behavior and emotional lives Few people know bears as intimately as Else Poulsen She has raised bears comforted bears taught bears learned from bears had bears communicate their needs to her and nursed bears back to health This remarkable book reveals the many insights about bears and their lives that she has gained through her work with them In the eighties Poulsen became a zookeeper in Calgary where she rehabilitated bears in crisis She has shared in the joy of a polar bear discovering soil under her paws for the first time in twenty years felt the pride of a cub learning to crack nuts with her molars and grieved at the horror of captivity for Asian black bears in China Smiling Bears provides an enlightening and moving portrait of bears in all their richness and complexity and of Poulsen's exhilarating work with them      The Chelsea Green Reader Ben Watson, 2014-12-02 Chelsea Green the Vermont based independent publisher has always had a nose for authors and subjects that are way ahead of the cultural curve as is evident in this new anthology celebrating the company's first thirty years in publishing The more than one hundred books represented in this collection reflect the many distinct areas in which we have published from literature and memoirs to progressive politics to highly practical books on green building organic gardening and farming food and health and related subjects all of which reflect our underlying philosophy The politics and practice of sustainable living The Chelsea Green Reader offers a glimpse into our wide ranging list of books and authors and to the important ideas that they express Interesting and worth reading in their own right the individual passages when taken as a whole trace the evolution of a highly successful small publisher something that is almost an oxymoron in these days of corporate buyouts and multinational book groups From the beginning

Chelsea Green's books were nationally recognized garnering positive reviews accolades and awards We've published four New York Times bestsellers and our books have set the standard for in depth how to books that remain relevant years often decades beyond their original publication date Chelsea Green was born from a single seed the beauty of craft Craft in writing and editing in a story well told or a thesis superbly expressed writes cofounder and publisher emeritus Ian Baldwin in the book's foreword Today craft continues to inform all aspects of our work design illustration production sales promotion and beyond It has even informed our business model In 2012 Chelsea Green became an employee owned company With the rise of the Internet new media platforms and a constantly shifting bookselling landscape the future of publishing is anything but predictable But if Chelsea Green's books prove anything it is that despite these challenges there remains a hunger for new and important ideas and authors and for the permanence and craftsmanship of the printed word Today our ongoing mission is stronger than ever as we launch into our next thirty years of publishing excellence Jeff Herman's Guide to Book
