Spell-a-Day for June Shari A. Malin, 2019-07-22 This book contains a collection of spells for many purposes including love money and protection There is one spell for each day in the month of June The Little Book of Hexes for Women Rebecca Sargent, Sophia, 1997 This handy reference guide for coping with modern life contains fifty spells touching on every imaginable annoyance women experience Many of the hexes have roots in real spells and folklore This self help book teaches women to create their own protective aura with humor something psychologists generally see as a healthy release of anger Each spell conjures up the offending evil and relegates it to a place where it can never offend again oblivion The curses are in recipe format listing the items needed to perform the ritual along with directions and a chant The spells are a fun and harmless way for women to take control over otherwise unbearable situations

That's Enough Folks Henry T. Sampson, 1998-06-25 An authoritative and valuable resource for students and scholars of film animation and African American history film buffs and casual readers It is the first and only book to detail the history of black images in animated cartoons Using advertisements quotes from producers newspaper reviews and other sources Sampson traces stereotypical black images through their transition from the first newspaper comic strips in the late 1890s to their inclusion in the first silent theatrical cartoons through the peak of their popularity in 1930s musical cartoons to their gradual decline in the 1960s He provides detailed storylines with dialogue revealing the extensive use of negative caricatures of African Americans Sampson devotes chapters to cartoon series starring black characters cartoons burlesquing life on the old slave plantation with happy slaves Uncle Tom and Topsy depictions of the African safari that include the white hunter his devoted servant and bloodthirsty black cannibals and cartoons featuring the music and the widely popular entertainment style of famous 1930s black stars including Cab Calloway Louis Armstrong and Fats Waller That's Enough Folks includes many rare previously unpublished illustrations and original animation stills and an appendix listing cartoon titles with black characters along with brief descriptions of gags in these cartoons
