

2015-2016 JV Girls Basketball Team Welcome Letter

Congratulations! Your daughter has been selected to be a part of the 2015-2016 JV Girls Basketball Team here at Crocus Plains.

My name is Katelyn Deremiens and I will be serving as the head coach of the team; my coaching resume can be found on the following website: katelynderemiens.yolasite.com. All practices, tournament schedules, and forms will be uploaded to this website for easy access, as well. My assistant coach is Kendall Omeljanow, a recent Plainsmen and spectacular athlete. I'm very excited to have her on board with me this year.

Being a part of this team is a big a commitment and this point was stressed with the girls during try-outs. We practice 4-5 times a week and will have 4-5 tournaments throughout our season, as well as some league games and exhibition games sprinkled in there.

As a member of this team, your daughter serves a significant purpose in creating a family out of this team. We wake up early together, we stay late together, we put in hours of monotonous repetition together, and we grow together. This team is about being part of something bigger than an individual. I want to teach these girls that, if you commit to something, put in the effort, support those around you, and work together to a common goal, we will be successful. This is a trait and experience that will lend to all avenues of life. I'm in the business of creating great people, not just good basketball players. At the end of the day, basketball skills will only get you so far, but the ability to work hard and prevail will translate into any undertaking that your daughter may encounter in her future.

That being said, there are two main things that come before basketball. Those are family and school. These girls are student-athletes. The student part comes first. Many coaches have differing opinions on this subject. Some coaches do not believe that it is our responsibility to "check in" on our athlete's academic performances. I am not one of those coaches. We are a team and we need to do well on and off the court. I do check in with my athletes teachers. If we are not meeting our academic needs or responsibilities as a student, the entire team pays. If one athlete skips a class, the entire team will run 5 wind sprints. If an athlete is behind in class, that athlete will not be allowed to play in any games until they have gotten caught up; this affects us as a team, as we need all of our girls ready to suit up and play in a game.

I guarantee that should your daughter attend all practices and games (obviously, people get sick, but the mentality should be set at 100% attendance), give 100% at those practices and games, develop a team mentality and personal resilience, she will be proud of herself at the end of the season. She will be glad that she was a part of this team.

I don't care how many Ws we put up in the season. What I do care about is that every time we step foot on the court, we give 100%. We do it for the team. We push for greatness and
