A Comparative Study of Batik and Kalamkari Paintings- With special reference to Telangana and Andhra Pradesh Dr. Priti Samyukta, Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 vols.) Susan Sinclair, 2012-04-03 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies

Building on Batik Michael Hitchcock, Wiendu Nuryanti, 2016-12-05 The word batik is possibly of Malay origin from the word tik meaning to drip or to drop The term is applied to a resist dye technique invented independently in locations as diverse as Ancient Egypt Japan and Turkestan Batik is a remarkably flexible textile technique and is suited to small scale methods of production but demand from the fashion and tourism industries is increasing This volume brings together the experiences and concerns of the international community of batik producers It gives voice to their suggestions for ensuring that the producers of this traditional craft are integrated into its increasingly global production rather than excluded from it Building on the work of batik designers and producers the book discusses the emergence of a global craft consciousness Batik producers report on innovative measures taken both individually and collectively to hold their market position while commercial producers frequently annex and mass produce traditional batik design The book concludes with a discussion of marketing and production innovations and tourism which enable the producers of batik to maintain the integrity of their designs whilst harnessing the benefits of new commercial forms

Java, Sumatra and the Other Islands of the Dutch East Indies Antoine Cabaton, 1912 Batik, Traditional Textiles of Indonesia Rudolf Smend, Donald Harper, 2011-11-15 Batik occupies a special place in Indonesian culture Each fabric has a rich story to tell as a reflection of the nation's religious beliefs sophisticated court cultures and cosmopolitan history The extraordinary textiles in this book are from the collections of Rudolf Smend and Donald Harper Most date from the period 1880 to 1930 when the art of batik reached its apogee Having collected historical batik for over thirty years and published two books on the subject Rudolf Smend has invited his friend and fellow batik specialist Donald Harper to contribute his fine collection to this publication as well None of the batik in this book have been published before They represent an exquisite cross section of the batik production of Java the most important batik producing region in the world The cloths are complemented by vintage photographs from the first quarter of the 20th century demonstrating how the batik were worn at court and at home Three are from museums in Dresden and Cologne while three are from the private collection of Leo Haks The others have been collected over the past 30 years from private sources in Java The captions are by Maria
