The background of the cover features a blue gradient. Silhouetted against this background are several chess pieces. On the left, a large piece, possibly a king or queen, is shown in profile, facing right. In the center, a smaller piece, likely a knight, is also shown in profile, facing right. On the right side, a large king piece stands prominently. To its right, a smaller pawn is visible. The overall composition suggests a strategic battle, which is the central theme of the book.
