Magill's Literary Annual 2003 is the fiftieth publication in a series that began in 1954 The philosophy behind the annual has been to evaluate critically 200 major examples of serious literature published during the previous year Our focus is to provide coverage for works that are likely to be of particular interest to the general reader that reflect the publishing trends of a given year that add to careers of authors being taught and researched in literature programs and that will stand the test of time By filtering the thousands of books published each year down to two hundred notable titles the editors have provided the busy librarian with an excellent reader s advisory tool and patrons with fodder for book discussion groups and a guide for selection The essay reviews in the Annual also provide a more academic reference review of a work than is typically found in newspapers and other periodical sources This year s works are drawn from such categories as anthropology autobiography biography current affairs diaries economics environment essays history language literary criticism medicine memoirs nature philosophy poetry psychology religion science short fiction sociology technology travel and women s issues The articles are arranged alphabetically by book title A complete list of included titles can be found at the beginning of volume 1 Each 2 000 word article begins with a block of top matter that indicates the title author publisher and price of the work When possible the year of the author's birth is also provided. The top matter also includes the number of pages of the book, the type of work and when appropriate the time period and locale represented in the text. Next comes a capsule description of the work. When pertinent a list of principal characters or personages with brief descriptions introduces the review. These original essay reviews analyze intent and relative success of the author and the work under discussion. To assist the reader further the articles are supplemented by a list of additional reviews for further study. Every essay includes a brief biography of the author or authors and thumbnail photographs of the book covers and authors are included as available. At the end of volume 2 are four cumulative indexes listing works covered from the years 1977 to 2003: an index of Biographical Works by Subject, a Category Index, a Title Index and an Author Index. The index of Biographical Works by Subject is arranged by subject rather than by author or title.

The Common Review, 2002      Interlitteraria, 2008      Baudolino Proof Umberto Eco, 2002-10      Bookforum, 2001      Europe, 2002      Ultimate Things Greg Carey, 2005-12 Carey presents an introduction to the elements of apocalyptic discourse in the Hebrew Bible, the intertestamental texts of the Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha and the Jewish and Christian apocalyptic texts. He seeks to help modern readers perplexed by the rampant and somewhat outrageous depiction and interpretation of apocalyptic literature to see apocalyptic discourse as a flexible set of resources that early Jews and Christians could employ for a variety of persuasive tasks. Carey examines each of the literary works that exhibit apocalyptic discourse. He briefly introduces the date and language of each text and shows its basic contents. Then he examines the particular topics and purposes of the work. Carey concludes by showing a way to read the particular example of apocalyptic discourse as a whole in its own setting with its own purposes. Carey invokes discourse as a category of study in an attempt to bring together the literary, ideological and social dimensions of apocalyptic language. He sees the genius of apocalyptic discourse in its ability to bring its audience into otherwise inaccessible mysteries concerning the future and the heavenly realms. As theology apocalyptic discourse engages life's greatest questions: the nature of God, the desire for justice and the frustrations of human finitude. As poetry it expresses the theological imagination in vivid symbols and conventional literary forms.

Embracing the Tune of Appearance: An Emotional Symphony within Baudolino

In a world taken by screens and the ceaseless chatter of immediate transmission, the melodic beauty and psychological symphony produced by the published word often diminish into the backdrop, eclipsed by the constant noise and disturbances that permeate our lives. However, nestled within the pages of Baudolino a stunning fictional work full of organic feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a wonderful composer of language, this fascinating masterpiece conducts visitors on an emotional journey, skillfully unraveling the concealed songs and profound impact resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of the touching assessment, we can investigate the book's central harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing design, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers' souls.
