Aminul Islam, Ku Halim Ku Ariffin, Azlan Amran, 2022-02-11

Over recent decades Sukuk Islamic bonds have emerged as one of the most important tools for Islamic investment and financing. They have become the most successful financial product in the Islamic financing industry which has grown at a phenomenal pace over the past decade. A key driver in this regard has been the development of the Islamic capital markets which offer tremendous potential for sovereigns, financial institutions, firms and investors alike. This book comes at a key juncture in the development of the Islamic capital markets with the global pandemic crisis providing an opportunity for the different players in the Islamic capital markets to re-appraise successes and failures to date. More stringent Shariah oversight has also encouraged a recent critical re-evaluation of the structures used in the Islamic capital markets. This book provides a comprehensive overview of the Sukuk markets tracking their development from the first Sukuk to the current outlook after the global pandemic crisis and the recent Shariah rulings for Islamic financial institutions in relation to Sukuk. It presents key insights for beginners as well as more experienced practitioners and will serve as a practical handbook for postgraduate research students, undergraduate students pursuing a degree in Islamic banking and finance, academics, researchers and stakeholders in Islamic capital markets among others.

Islamic Finance in the Financial Markets of Europe, Asia and America Faiza Ismail, 2022-08-30. Among international financial centres, IFCs, London is known as the Western hub of Islamic Finance on account of its well-developed legal infrastructure. However, Brexit has threatened London's status and consequently the financial services industry is moving to Dublin to continue operating in the Euro region. Similarly, Islamic finance IF service providers in the UK are also looking to Dublin for expansion of this niche area in euro member states. This is the first book to be written about Islamic finance operations in the Eurozone. The book offers an in-depth description of International Financial Centres and the growth of Islamic Finance, compares the growth of Islamic finance in London, Dubai and Kuala Lumpur, outlines the implications of Brexit for financial service providers in London in general and Islamic investors in particular and also presents a case study of Ireland to establish the latter as the most appropriate country to promote IF in the Eurozone. The time is particularly right for a book exploring the potential of Ireland to emerge as a Eurozone hub of Islamic finance as a result of Britain's exit from Europe. The book will cater to the needs of readers studying IF in the disciplines of economics, business law and religion. A secondary market includes practitioners such as policymakers, lawyers, fund managers, accountants, regulators and international investors who will be interested in exploring the benefits that the UK and Ireland have to offer the Islamic finance industry.
