Global Pentecostalism

David Westerlund, 2009-03-30 Pentecostalism is a movement within Christianity placing special emphasis on a believer's personal encounter with God through the Holy Spirit

It is arguably the world's fastest growing form of religion While exact figures are uncertain there may now be as many as 500 million Pentecostals Closely related to other forms of born again Christianity Evangelical and Charismatic Pentecostalism has been described as a religion made to travel From the outset it has been a strong missionary movement and has been oriented towards recruitment and expansion Research into this important form of Christianity has become more popular of late but the movement's remarkably fast spread is still not well understood In particular its constant worldwide encounters with other religions and beliefs as well as with different forms of Christianity have seldom been explored at length This rich and varied book remedies that neglect Although its adherents supposedly preach a universal message in practice Pentecostalism's global spread has resulted in increasing diversification The volume investigates the consequences of that spread and of the accommodations Pentecostal missionaries have to make when faced by pluralism and the challenges posed by ecumenism

Ranging across every major continent the contributors to the volume make a significant contribution towards a fuller and more complete understanding of this remarkable world faith Pentecostalism is topical fast expanding newsworthy and exotic

This is the definitive collection by international experts on the movement It is the first book to address Pentecostalism's fascinating relationship with other faiths and beliefs

University of Singapore How Should We Talk about Religion? James Boyd White, 2006 Demonstrating how religion is talked about in the languages of very different academic disciplines this book addresses various issues fundamentalism the role of religion in American democracy the tension between secular liberalism and religious rhetoric and monotheism versus pluralism RSS's Tryst with Politics Pralay Kanungo,2002 This RSS is perhaps the most controversial organization in contemporary India This book explores the mission method and motive of the RSS and suggests that the ideological core of the RSSHindu Rashtrais political and not cultural It argues that K B Hedgewar the founder of the RSS had a clear political mission while M S Golwalkar his successor despite his saintly appearance and overt distaste for politics sharpened and amplified its ideology Nevertheless deep down the RSS remained political This book goes on to delineate how Balasaheb Deoras the third chief who did not have much of a fancy for culture plunged into Indian politics on the organizational and ideological foundation created by his predecessors Deoras seriously pursued the homogenizing agenda of the RSS to integrate different sections like the Dalits tribals and women into the fold of the Hindu Rashtra Rajendra Singh the sucessor of Deoras consolidated the political mission by getting control over the State and reaching out to civil society more effectively K S Sudarshan the present chief while attempting to retain a tight control over State power simultaneously reinforces Hindutva The author concludes by arguing that the RSSfrom Hedgewar to Sudarshancontinues its tryst with politics to convert India into a Hindu Rashtra Highly readable and of contemporary relevance this book would be of immense interest to political scientists political sociologists and all those interested in present day India Jewish Political Studies Review,2001 Apartheid, Fundamentalism and Humane Global Governance R.
