Islamic Folklore The Staff of Prophet Musa AS Moses English Edition Lite Version Based From The Noble Quran And Al Hadith And We inspired Musa Moses saying Throw your staff and behold It swallowed up straight away all the falsehoods which they showed The Holy Quran Surah Al Araf Verse 117 Why is it that a garden is sometimes green and sometimes yellow Why is it that the deserts are dry and the mountaintops are covered with snow Why is it that the color of the sun is like fire when rising and like blood when setting Why is it that the moon turns from a beautiful full moon to a slim crescent There are so many whys which I cannot find the answer for All I know is that I was a plant then I became an inanimate object And then I turned into an animal I know that my last transformation from an object to an animal was one of Allah s great Miracles To Prophet Musa AS Moses I was only a staff but to Almighty Allah SWT God I was something totally different The staff of Musa that is me There are Tears in Things (English Edition) Laksmi Pamuntjak, 2016-11-07 What a pleasure to see Laksmi Pamuntjak s poems and prose texts in one generous volume that bears witness to her versatility and dexterity in both those genres long before her name became internationally known for her splendid first novel Her multivocal stories intertwine with the lush layered textures of art and music and her elliptical deft poems observe with a clear eye the cityscapes of our own restless lives whether in Jakarta or London New York or Berlin Aamer Hussein author of Another Gulmohar Tree The Cloud Messenger Insomnia It is clear from her beautiful poetry and prose that Laksmi Pamuntjak knows the human heart has many chambers who cares what doctors think and that love desire and longing is never so easy and simple as to occupy only one room in the hotel of our hearts This staggering collection is both delicate and dangerous forceful and faultless She draws back the curtains on the aching complexities of vulnerability all you have to do is enter Sean M Whelan author of Tattooing the Surface of the Moon Laksmi Pamuntjak s poems start in the thinking mind intelligently constructed and seemingly softly spoken But they roam wildly into everything that surrounds it both by way of the material the bodily the sensuous and along the transformative power of the imagination Her verse brings these two distinct modes of being together as if they are not separate at all In so doing her poetry is one where the personal the political and the mystical are one As they should be Joost Baars poet essayist former manager of Perdu Poetry Theater in Amsterdam Pamuntjak moves through cities and bodies and imprints and sends us these pages like postcards to cherish on one side poems and musings on the other vignettes and visuals So we travel with her through her eyes seeing and savoring each experience renewed by every fresh taste or tableau Sharanya Manivannan author of The High Priestess Never Marries Aesthetically intense and powerfully sensual the poetry is attuned meticulous deft and the reader is transfigured by a sea of silences Books of the Year 2005 The Herald UK for Ellipsis hard not to get caught up in the poems sheer energy and celebration of language or as Pamuntjak writes a world of the word The Straits Times Singapore for Ellipsis hard edged and heartfelt her translations of
