Race, Racialization and Antiracism in Canada and Beyond Genevieve Fuji Johnson, Randy Enomoto, 2007-06-23 This multidisciplinary volume brings together scholars and activists to examine expressions of racism in contemporary policy areas including education labour immigration media and urban planning While anti racist struggles during the twentieth century were largely pitched against overt forms of racism e g pogroms genocide segregation apartheid and ethnic cleansing it has become increasingly apparent that there are other less visible forms of racism These subtler incarnations are of special interest to the contributors The intent of Race Racialization and Antiracism in Canada and Beyond is to probe systemic forms of racism as well as to suggest strategies for addressing them The collection is organized by themes pertinent to political and social expressions of racism in Canada and the wider world such as the state and its mediation of race education and the perpetuation of racist marginalization and the role of the media The contributors argue that in order to effectively combat racism various methodological approaches are required approaches that are reflective of the diversity of the world we seek to understand

Beyond Systemic Discrimination Päivi Gynther, 2007 This book presents an analysis of international law in support of educationally disadvantaged young people and adults Focusing on Roma it introduces a scheme for identifying situations where they become subjected to discrimination by state parties to relevant international standards

Beyond Binaries and Polarization? Elke Winter, 2025-06-30 This book explores what lies between the statuses of insider and outsider in immigrant nations It asks Who is conditionally included excluded in relation to whom and for what reasons What does this conditional inclusion exclusion entail in terms of citizenship material resources and sense of belonging How does it affect the cultural and economic well being of refugees migrants and the host society The focus is on Canada which is often described as the quintessential immigrant nation The chapters in this book provide new insights into several hotly contested issues the overlapping cultural and economic logics of nationalist inclusion exclusion the growing prevalence of temporary and two step migration regimes the importance of cities in managing multiculturalism the need to disaggregate minority groups and the intersections of race class and gender in narratives of nationhood By shifting the focus of research from us them binaries to the study of relational inclusion exclusion involving three or more actors or groups this book highlights the often overlooked conditionality and temporality of immigrant inclusion the messiness of policies aimed at ethnic diversity and the uneven distribution of attitudes among members of minority groups This book will be valuable for scholars students and policymakers in the fields of sociology political science migration studies and Canadian studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Nationalism and Ethnic Politics and are accompanied with a new Foreword a comprehensive glossary and critical engagement questions

Beyond Ethnicism Wairimu Nderitu, 2015-12-29 The manual Beyond Ethnicism Exploring Racial and Ethnic Diversity for Educators a first of its kind in Kenya speaks to the key issues of ethnic and racial belonging that are such a key determining factor in defining and dividing Kenyans These two issues influence many social economic and especially political decisions The manual transcends the limitations of current discussions on ethnicism and racism Questions of ethnic and racial belonging are connected to some of the deepest moral and political decisions of our time Belonging is an emotional subject that as a country citizens should not lose capacity to discuss coherently An educator who wanted to know how to end ethnicism and racism inspired the writing of this manual Ethnic and racial favoritism as well as discrimination have seeped into the Kenyan education system Educators sit in staff rooms as members of political parties or ethnic communities and sometimes consciously or unconsciously perpetuate ethnic and racial stereotypes and prejudices Educators find talking about ethnicism and racism difficult They do not know where to begin yet they can recognise ethnicism and racism in learners Sometimes they practice it themselves favouring or discriminating learners on the basis of ethnicity or race Educators are sometimes helpless in arresting ethnicist and racist practices in their learners or themselves as they do not have the tools to do so This manual is a practical resource which assists educators in contextualising ethnic and race related concerns without undermining the human rights it also helps in creating the space for discourse amongst educators on how to combat ethnicism and racism It asks rarely addressed critical and significant questions on the meaning of ethnic and racial belonging The manual addresses the arresting of stereotypes and prejudice before they morph into actual discrimination and sometimes violence

The West and Beyond Sarah Carter, Alvin Finkel, Peter Fortna, 2010 The West and Beyond evaluates and appraises the state of Western Canadian history acknowledging and assessing the contributions of historians of the past and present while showcasing the research interests of a new generation of scholars It charts new directions for the future and stimulates further interrogations of our past This collection encourages dialogue among the generations of historians of the West and among practitioners of diverse approaches to the past It also reflects a broad range of disciplinary and professional boundaries suggesting a number of different ways to understand the west

Tides of Change: Beyond The Horizon Margery Dillon, In this insightful book we delve into the perplexing world of ocean acidification and its potential consequences for future generations Through careful analysis we explore the intricate web of interactions within our oceans unveiling the intricate processes that lead to these hazardous changes Examining the delicate balance between marine life and the acidity of the seawater we shed light on the far reaching impacts this phenomenon poses for the generations yet to come Deepening our understanding of the intricacies within this intricate system we uncover the delicate equilibrium that future generations may inherit Join us on this intellectual journey as we probe the depths of ocean acidification and its implications for the world s future inhabitants The implications are vast and pressing urging us to reconsider our actions and pave a sustainable path for a harmonious coexistence with our immense oceans Beyond Token Change Anne Bishop,2005 Using a case study as its starting point this guide examines the patterns of oppression built into organizations and institutions Such systems of discrimination and oppression originate not with individuals within the institution but rather the dynamics within the institutions themselves Attention is given to the tactics employed to achieve equality and overcome oppressive attitudes in the workplace According to this analysis the true test of an institution s intentions is whether its policies achieve only token change or transform its deeper structure California. Court of Appeal (3rd Appellate District). Records and Briefs California (State)., Beyond Intellectual Sexism Joan I. Roberts,1976

Nondiscrimination in Employment--and Beyond Ruth G. Shaeffer,1980 Beyond Violence Mari Fitzduff,2002 Annotation Beyond Violence contains valuable practical insights for those who are struggling to manage and resolve ethnic religious political or cultural conflicts in many regions of the world BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Marginality and Difference in Education and Beyond Michael Jonathan Reiss,Renée DePalma,Elizabeth Atkinson,2007 This collection brings together analyses from a range of educational contexts around the world of the ways in which notions of identity and difference belonging and exclusion are constructed within and beyond the context of education Three key themes link the chapters within the book current policy and practice in education and educational research educational imperialism and its legacy cultures and sub cultures within and beyond educational contexts Part One Educational Policy and Practice Internal Colonisations explores what might be described as the internal colonization of education by a certain set of hegemonic ideas and practices practices which the authors in this book set out collectively to resist In Part Two Educational Imperialism and its Legacy the focus turns to external imperialism within education In Part Three Culture and Subculture Within and Beyond Education notions of space place and identity are interwoven with linguistic symbolic and material cultural markers The contributors are Elizabeth Atkinson Stephen Ball Ren e DePalma Stephen Dobson David Gough Ruby Greene Jennifer Lavia Ahmad Nazari Carrie Paechter Michael Reiss John Storey Takako Takano Maddalena Taras Carol Vincent and Deborah Youdell The book is intended for academics for students working at Masters level and above and for education professionals and policy makers and will also appeal to scholars working in education and those involved in interdisciplinary work or working in the fields of sociology cultural studies and sociolinguistics Beyond Law ,1996 Beyond the Casebook ,1990 Beyond the New Orthodoxy Nikoi Kote-Nikoi,1996 Focuses on economic conditions in Africa from the mid 1960s to 1990 Beyond the Barriers New Zealand.

National Advisory Council on the Employment of Women. Research Advisory Group,1990 Despite legislative and attitudinal changes in the last 20 years barriers to women s full participation in paid work still exist This report explores what government employers and unions can do to improve women s access to paid work a wider range of occupations and better rates of pay and conditions of employment Discussion of these strategies is based on detailed analysis of women s participation in the labour market and the social political legal and economic factors which affect their rates of involvement their concentration in certain jobs and their access to positions of responsibility This report argues that strategies directed at improving women s access to paid work entail intervention by the state in the labour market and economic policy which generates jobs It recognises diversity in the experiences of Maori and non Maori women It considers the specific experiences of Pacific Island women of young women of those re entering the paid workforce and of women with disabilities Summary p 1

Beyond Political Correctness Stephen Richer,Lorna Weir,1995 The term political correctness has lately been transformed into a weapon of neoconservatism Once used to poke fun at social movements and civil rights groups for occasional lapses into rigidity it has since become a popular handle for the neoconservative critique of higher education Aimed at anti racist and anti sexist initiatives within universities colleges and other major social institutions the term is used to discredit such innovations as employment equity selective recruitment of students from groups that have suffered systemic discrimination sexual harassment policies and women s studies programs casting these as forms of tyranny that destroy academic freedom and merit This anthology is the first sociological analysis of political correctness and the first study of the phenomenon in Canada Contributors argue on behalf of an inclusive university showing that recent reforms not only work toward broadening human rights but provide a welcome reorganization of knowledge All but two papers have been written specifically for this text BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Dayton and Beyond Christophe Solioz,John B. Allcock,2004 In this book recognized international and Bosnian experts and analysts address the future of Bosnia in the area of constitutional reform economic development culture and education A provocative introductory section asks whether the Dayton agreement has failed to create stable institutions of government able to deal with the challenges the country faces on its way to Euro Atlantic integration Among the key issues debated in this volume are the primacy of individual over group rights a recent court decision that all three ethnic groups are constituent throughout the country the role of culture and education in reinforcing division rather than integration and the abysmal economic record which is in large part due to policy failures The book provides a differentiated picture of a complex situation and will be useful to those interested in Bosnia s triple transition process from war to peace a one party state to a liberal democracy and a planned to a market economy It goes beyond a simple snapshot of a country s situation to suggest that a strategy focused on local ownership is now needed a point of direct relevance to peace missions elsewhere Beyond Diversity ,2009

Beyond Systemic Discrimination Beyond Systemic Discrimination: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Beyond Systemic Discrimination Beyond Systemic Discrimination : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Beyond Systemic Discrimination Beyond Systemic Discrimination : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Beyond Systemic Discrimination Beyond Systemic Discrimination : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
