Australian Fiction as Archival Salvage Frances A. Johnson, 2015-11-16 Australian Fiction as Archival Salvage examines key developments in the field of the Australian postcolonial historical novel from 1989 to the present. In parallel with this analysis, Frances Johnson undertakes a unique study of in-kind creativity reflecting on how her own nascent historical fiction has been critically and imaginatively shaped and inspired by seminal experiments in the genre by writers as diverse as Kate Grenville, Mudrooroo, Kim Scott, Peter Carey, Richard Flanagan, and Rohan Wilson. Mapping the postcolonial novel against the impact of postcolonial cultural theory and Australian writers' intermittent embrace of literary postmodernism, this survey is also read against the post-millennial history and culture wars which saw politicizations of national debates around history and fierce contestation over the ways stories of Australian pasts have been written. The Cambridge Companion to the Australian Novel Nicholas Birns, Louis Klee, 2023-03-02 This book provides a clear, lively, and accessible guide to the complex histories and vital present of the Australian novel. The Routledge Companion to Biofiction Lucia Boldrini, Laura Cernat, Alexandre Gefen, Michael Lackey, 2025-03-31 The Routledge Companion to Biofiction provides readers with the history, origins, and evolution of this popular genre. Featuring contributions from leading scholars in the field, this authoritative collection foregrounds analyses of biofiction's core foundations through contemporary debates. The volume is organized into seven sections: Histories of biofiction; Theoretical reflections on biofiction; Biofiction, national models, and transnational constructions; Biofiction as political intervention; Biofictional case studies; Activating lives: early modern women and authorial reflections. This groundbreaking collection features works that refine our understanding of the genesis and evolution of biofiction, theorize its unique and distinctive modes of signifying, reflect on its value for the future, and social justice. It charts new approaches for doing biofictional analysis and offers insights from authors of biofiction into the creative process. This is the first collection to bring together the two main schools of interpreting biofiction: the Francophone and Anglophone, while also shedding light on biofictions in many languages from or about many continents and offering a platform to established and new voices alike. It will be essential reading for students as well as advanced scholars interested in biographical fiction. Imagining Gender in Biographical Fiction Julia Novak, Caitríona Ní Dhúill, 2022-12-15 This volume addresses the current boom in biographical fictions across the globe, examining the ways in which gendered lives of the past become reimagined as gendered narratives in fiction. Building on this research, this book is the first to address questions of gender in a sustained and systematic manner that is also sensitive to cultural and historical differences in both raw material and fictional reworking. It develops a critical lens through which to approach biofictions as fictions of gender, drawing on theories of biofiction and historical fiction, life writing studies, feminist criticism, queer feminist readings, postcolonial studies, feminist art history, and trans studies. Attentive to various approaches to fictionalisation that reclaim, appropriate, or reinvent their raw material, the volume assesses the critical, revisionist, and deconstructive potential of biographical fictions while acknowledging the effects of cliché gender norms and established narratives in many of the texts under investigation The introduction of this book is available open access under a CC BY 4.0 license at link.springer.com Chapter 1 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com
