Burma Or Myanmar The Struggle For National Identity:

Burma Or Myanmar? Lowell Dittmer, 2010 Burma is one of the largest and most richly endowed states in Southeast Asia Yet it remains both economically and politically underdeveloped Why is this so This book argues that much of the reason has to do with an ongoing struggle for national identity It is suitable for students and professionals interested in development studies

Dictionary of the Modern Politics of Southeast Asia Joseph Chinyong Liow, 2022-07-21 The past three decades since the end of the Cold War have been a time of remarkable change for Southeast Asia Long seen as an arena for superpower rivalry Southeast Asia is increasingly coming into its own by locating itself at the forefront of regional integration initiatives that involve not only the states of the region but major external powers such as the United States China India Japan and Australia Extensively updated and revised in light of these changes and developments this fifth edition of Dictionary of the Modern Politics of Southeast Asia remains indispensable This new edition starts with profiles of each Southeast Asian country before providing over 500 alphabetically arranged individual entries each containing detailed accounts and analyses of major episodes and treaties political parties and institutions civil society movements and regional and international organizations Biographies of significant political leaders and personalities both past and present are also provided Entries are comprehensively cross referenced and an index by country directs readers to all entries concerning a particular country The Dictionary concludes with an extensive bibliography that serves as a guide to further reading An essential one stop reference book this book is an indispensable tool for all scholars and students of Asian politics and international affairs and a vital resource for journalists diplomats policy makers and others with an interest in the region

Armed Groups and International Legitimacy William Plowright, 2021-02-23 This book analyses the issue of child soldiers in order to understand how armed groups engage with international organizations to gain international legitimacy The work examines why some armed groups follow the rules of international humanitarian law and others do not It argues that armed groups in conflicts around the world engage with international organizations in order to gain international legitimacy and to show they are following the laws of war By examining the issue of child soldiers in contemporary armed conflict the volume establishes a typology of which groups will engage with international actors and follow the laws of war and which will not The main aim of the book is to understand the rationality of even the most violent of actors and to understand when and how armed groups can be encouraged to follow the laws of war The work draws from extensive primary research conducted among armed groups in Syria and Myanmar including al Qaeda the Islamic State and the many small ethnic insurgent groups of Myanmar This book will be of much interest to students of war and conflict studies security studies international humanitarian law and International Relations

Land Conflicts Across Frontiers Reshmi Banerjee, 2018-11-12 Land Conflicts Across Frontiers compares Myanmar's journey with North East India on the critical and contested issue of land It examines concerns related to land in pre colonial and colonial history causes and consequences of land conflicts today the socioeconomic dynamics attached to land along with attempted community based institutional interventions and rural activism As Myanmar takes its steps towards a democratic future it becomes critical for the country to be aware of North East India s experiences as they could provide valuable lessons of what to implement and what to avoid Loss of common property resources non recognition of customary rights ambiguous land laws and inadequate attention to people s grievances have led to a rural landscape which has witnessed livelihood vulnerability displacement and conflict The book not only tries to capture cross border experiences in order to have a better understanding of land alienation agrarian discontent and peripheral marginalization but also notes recent trends in rural spaces and suggests policy measures Myanmar's

Mountain and Maritime Borderscapes Su-Ann Oh,2016 This edited volume adds to the literature on Myanmar and its borders by drawing attention to the significance of geography history politics and society in the construction of the border regions and the country The Languages and Linguistics of Mainland Southeast Asia Paul Sidwell,Mathias

Jenny,2021-08-23 The handbook will offer a survey of the field of linguistics in the early 21st century for the Southeast Asian Linguistic Area The last half century has seen a great increase in work on language contact work in genetic theoretical and descriptive linguistics and since the 1990s especially documentation of endangered languages The book will provide an account of work in these areas focusing on the achievements of SEAsian linguistics as well as the challenges and unresolved issues and provide a survey of the relevant major publications and other available resources We will address Survey of the languages of the area organized along genetic lines with discussion of relevant political and cultural background issues Theoretical descriptive and typological issues Genetic classification and historical linguistics Areal and contact linguistics Other areas of interest such as sociolinguistics semantics writing systems etc Resources major monographs and monograph series dictionaries journals electronic data bases etc Grammar sketches of languages representative of the genetic and structural diversity of the region Arms Politics Francesco Buscemi,2025-08-15 In Arms Politics Francesco Buscemi tells the story of the ceasefire disarmament and rearmament of the Ta ang movement in Myanmar s Shan State through an analysis of the formation of the Palaung State Liberation Front Ta ang National Liberation Army PSLF TNLA With a focus on the circulation of weapons through the post 1991 ceasefire disarmament and rearmament years Buscemi explores how becoming and being an armed force leads to the becoming and being of a rebel polity Buscemi argues that the governance of arms and weaponry by rebel movements such as the PSLF TNLA shapes historically and spatially complex relationships among leadership rank and file civilians and civil society groups Furthermore he demonstrates that it is through the acquisition of weapons and the governing of armed collectives that rebel movements reproduce and shape the collective identity of their polity and its political geography Against the backdrop of the world s longest ongoing armed conflict Arms Politics shows how the processes and practices of governing weapons shape social and spatial relations of rule at the edges of state authority Religion in Southeast Asia Jesudas M. Athyal,2015-03-10 This engaging encyclopedia covers the religions and religious traditions of various Southeast Asian countries including Brunei Burma Cambodia Indonesia Laos Malaysia the Philippines Thailand and Vietnam In this unprecedented profile of the religions of Southeast Asia scholars from around the world explore the faiths spiritual practices and theological dogmas of the region The book contains a fascinating collection of accurate detailed articles informative sidebars and an extensive list of reference materials all of which uncover beliefs in that part of the world Discussions of ancient religions combined with a look at contemporary trends feature topics such as religious fundamentalism secularism and globalization Through 150 alphabetically arranged entries this encyclopedia investigates the religions and religious traditions of countries such as Brunei Burma Cambodia Indonesia Laos Malaysia and the Philippines among others Written in an accessible style this comprehensive reference looks at a variety of belief systems including Buddhism Confucianism tribal practices Hinduism Jainism and Zoroastrianism A selected general bibliography offers a listing of the most important print and electronic resources on the topic

The Problem of Muslim National Identity in Myanmar Myint Thein (a) Abdus Salaam, 2012 This study examines the identity of Muslim communities in Myanmar Burma based on their ancient origins and settlements in Myanmar and their struggle to maintain their national identity under successive governments The results of this study confirm that Muslim communities in Myanmar namely Burman Muslims including Pathi Myedu and Zerbadee Rakhine Muslims including Rohingya and Kaman Panthay Muslims Chinese and Pashu Muslims Malay have historically evolved and are stable communities like other ethnic groups of Myanmar and that they are by right Myanmar nationals This study shows that Muslim communities at Burma's independence automatically had Burmese citizenship the same status as all other citizens of Burma and that they were among the 144 national races of Burma until 1982 However they gradually lost their status rights and privileges after the military coup led by General Ne Win in 1962 It is the main finding of the present research that the 1982 Burma Citizenship Law created by General Ne Win did not only deliberately target the Rohingyas in Rakhine State to make them Stateless and refugees but also degraded most of the Muslims and other minorities throughout the country to become second class or third class citizens without any justification This study also found that the 1982 Burma Citizenship Law is contrary to the basic principles of the United Nations Charter human rights and international norms

Political Armies Kees Koonings, Dirk Kruijt, 2002-05 This comparative examination of politicized armed forces looks at consequences of military rule for nation building and economic development effects of the passing of the Cold War the role of political armies in the consolidation of civil politics and lessons for global governance

Burma Myanmar Morten B. Pedersen, Ronald James May, Emily Rudland, 2000 Myanmar's Long Road to National Reconciliation Trevor Wilson, 2003-08-01 In late 2004 Myanmar's best known general and long serving leader of the military regime General Khin Nyunt was suddenly dismissed This shock development perpetrated by a regime that has defied all predictions of its demise and disintegration generated widespread uncertainty both inside and outside the country Official reassurances about continuing the 2003 e Road Mape process left many questions about the path ahead

unanswered Would political dialogue with opposition groups be resumed How would increasingly restive ethnic groups respond Would nascent civil society groups be able to play a role in national reconciliation How would the new leadership deal with the flagging economy What are the prospects for the large but under funded and highly regulated agricultural sector This book addresses these issues Introduction to Geopolitics Colin Flint, 2021-08-30 This new updated edition presents the overarching themes of geopolitical structures and agents in an engaging and accessible manner which requires no previous knowledge of theory or current affairs It helps readers understand the geopolitical implications of COVID 19 China s pronounced role in the world the relative decline of the US and the Black Lives Matter movement Using new pertinent case studies and guided exercises the title explains the contemporary global power of the United States and the challenges it is facing the changing foreign policy of China and other countries the persistence of nationalist conflicts migration cyberwar and cyberactivism terrorism energy geopolitics and environmental geopolitics Expanded case studies of the South China Sea disputes and China s Belt and Road Initiative emphasize the multi faceted nature of conflict The book raises questions by incorporating international and long term historical perspectives and introduces readers to different theoretical viewpoints including feminist contributions The new edition features fresh discussion of island geopolitics the Anthropocene age and geoeconomics Introduction to Geopolitics will provide its readers with a set of critical analytical tools for understanding the actions of states as well as non state actors acting in competition over resources and power Both students and general readers will find this book an essential stepping stone to a deeper and critical understanding of contemporary conflicts The companion website will enable readers to apply the themes of the book to the constant shifts in current affairs to enable deeper understanding It will provide access to weekly essays showing how the themes explain current events
