Marshall V. Burger King Corporation ,2005 Burger King Anthony Vu, Daniel Bo, Joseph Brooks, Victoria Cheng, Melody Tsang, 2013-08 Master's Thesis from the year 2012 in the subject Business economics Marketing Corporate Communication CRM Market Research Social Media grade A Santa Clara University language English abstract Purchased in 2010 by 3G Capital Management BK became privately owned with a single business corporate strategy Immediately the new ownership group set out to make impactful company wide changes The first change was the elimination of the firm's King mascot in 2011 which was seen as edgy and targeted towards young men in their teens and twenties The new phase which began earlier this year consists of a drastic change in overall brand strategy to reposition BK as a broad and appealing restaurant in the QSR industry To attract a wider audience such as women and health conscious customers BK has added a significant amount of menu items including smoothies coffee drinks and salads Furthermore it has set out to remodel around 1 500 restaurants In place of the previous mascot BK has enlisted A list celebrities i e David Beckham and Selma Hayek to advertise its products Another strategy that they plan to implement is to sell almost all of its 1 300 corporate stores to franchise stores in an effort to protect itself from commodity cost swings and fixed costs With significant competition from both current as well as fast growing QSRs i e Five Guys Burgers and Fries Panera Bread and Chipotle Mexican Grill BK's recent moves have been perceived as imitating the leader McDonald's rather than differentiating the company While it remains to be seen whether or not the strategy is enough to grow the business a potential concern is whether 3G Capital Management is looking for long term growth or settling for marginal growth in the short term to fund their exit from the company by going back to a public entity The current strategy conveys that BK is in catch up mode instead of trying to distinguish itself as a premier QSR Considering both in The Burger King James W. Advertising History from the 1960s to Today Samuel Fulmer, 2019-04-18 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2015 in the subject Communications Public Relations Advertising Marketing Social Media grade 2 University of Salzburg language English abstract This thesis will mainly look at two fast food restaurants McDonald's and Burger King and will look at several advertisements from the 1960s to today It will analyze the advertisements in terms of linguistic structures and will look at how advertisements have developed over the decades They are in our everyday life on our phones when we look for a new app to install on television while watching our favorite show on our notebooks when we check our emails or even when we walk down the street to get our morning coffee advertisements are everywhere and one cannot escape or ignore them Yet as much as pop ups billboards and commercial breaks crowd our lives in a way they do not bother us at all and that is the cunning beauty of advertising It should get the point across making us aware of something telling us about a new product convincing us to purchase an item by subtly trying to persuade us that we need it when in reality we do not whatever it is Advertisements can come in many forms and genres they can be a poem they can be a little short story a catchy jingle or just a picture whatever form they might take the message of persuading the consumer to buy the advertised product makes this accumulation of genres a genre in itself It moreover is important to mention that whos and wheres of advertising are factors that have to be taken into consideration when drafting an advertisement for a product What is the product and who could benefit from it Where should the advertisement to the product appear so it can be easily seen by the target group How can the features of the product be made easy to read and easy to understand and furthermore and more importantly urge the target group to purchase it here is where language comes into play The History of Burger King Auke de Haan,2024
