Burger King Zinfandel:

The Napa Valley Wine Industry Ian Malcolm Taplin, 2021-06-15 This book examines how Napa became a pre eminent site for the production of great and sometimes iconic wines in a short space of time Unlike its Old World counterparts whose development took place over centuries Napa s inception didn t start until the beginning of the 19th century and even then struggled to identify appropriate grape varietals and find a market for such wine only to be frustrated when Prohibition occurred in the early 20th century and practically shut down the industry It was in the 1960s that winegrowing would re emerge on a scale and quality that began to be noticed by informed critics and neophyte consumers In the following decades critical information sharing networks of owners and winemakers emerged facilitating a collective organization learning that fostered a commitment to quality and consistency that would cement Napa s reputation During these decades technical skills were embraced institutional support harnessed and demand for premium wine in America grew This book is a story about this evolving wine market about how key individuals were able to shape its organization and build a brand that would increasingly be identified as amongst the best in the world It starts with an early discussion of what constitutes quality and how wine has been evaluated over the centuries and ends by exploring Napa s apotheosis and the current critical issues facing the industry in that area

The World in a Wineglass Ray Isle, 2023-11-14 NATIONAL BESTSELLER

Food Wine editor Ray Isle does for wine what Michael Pollan s The Omnivore s Dilemma did for food showing readers how to choose more delicious interesting and environmentally friendly wines without breaking the bank So much of today s wine is mass produced industrially farmed corporate owned and essentially ordinary In The World in a Wineglass veteran wine writer Ray Isle explains that the way a wine is made and who made it can make a huge difference when you drink it and why that information matters much more than knowing it scored 90 points Or that it tastes like blueberries Or hints of violets and black pepper Drawing on his deep knowledge and genuine appreciation of winemaking Isle takes us on a tour of several hundred independently owned wineries around the world everywhere from France s Burgundy to Oregon s Willamette Valley to the Itata Valley in the southern reaches of Chile bringing the local vintners to life and describing the different wines they produce in vivid detail Isle s enthusiasm for the grape growers and winemakers who are working sustainably or organically shines through as he shares his love for the way a glass of wine can express the place it comes from and capture the essence of the person who made it Focusing on wines people can afford rather than 500 rarities Isle shows us where and how to find the most interesting bottles out there today Whether you prefer a hearty cabernet a crisp chardonnay or something more off the beaten path Ray Isle s affable accessible guide to finding unusual or undiscovered varieties offers a window into a whole
