Revolutionary Love in Eighteenth- and Early Nineteenth-Century France Allan H. Pasco,2016-12-05 In this innovative study the author carves out a new field a sociology of literature in which he offers insightful commentary about the nexus of literature and society Calling on history sociology and psychology as well as literature as points of reference Allan Pasco examines the conceptual shift in the ideal of love in eighteenth century France Pasco explores the radical though gradual changes that occurred during the Enlightenment with respect to how the emotion of love was viewed Earlier love had been subordinate to the demands of family king and deity passion was dangerous and to be avoided But over time individual happiness became the greatest good and passion the measure of love Authors as diverse as Marivaux Marmontel Rousseau Baculard d Arnaud Pigault Lebrun and Madame de Sta l make it clear that the ideal of rapturous love did not live up to its billing it did not last and it brought destructive fantasies an epidemic of disease the scourge of divorce and considerable anguish Still as Pasco points out passion became and remained the ideal and the Romantics were left to plumb its nature
