The Outward Mindset , The Arbinger Institute, Arbinger Institute, 2016-06-13 Presenting compelling true stories to illustrate the gaps that individuals and organizations typically experience between their actual inward mindsets and their needed outward mindsets this book provides simple yet profound guidance and tools to help bridge this mindset gap

Leadership and Self-Deception , The Arbinger Institute, 2018-09-04 This third edition of an international bestseller over 2 million copies sold worldwide and translated into 33 languages details how its powerful insights on motivation conflict and collaboration can benefit organizations as well as individuals Since its original publication in 2000 Leadership and Self Deception has become an international word of mouth phenomenon Rather than tapering off it sells more copies every year The book's central insight that the key to leadership lies not in what we do but in who we are has proven to have powerful implications not only for organizational leadership but in readers personal lives as well Leadership and Self Deception uses an entertaining story everyone can relate to about a man facing challenges at work and at home to expose the fascinating ways that we blind ourselves to our true motivations and unwittingly sabotage the effectiveness of our own efforts to achieve happiness and increase happiness We trap ourselves in a box of endless self justification Most importantly the book shows us the way out Readers will discover what millions already have learned how to consistently tap into and act on their innate sense of what's right dramatically improving all of their relationships This third edition includes new research about the self deception gap in organizations and the keys to closing this gap The authors offer guidance for how to assess the in the box and out of the box mindsets in yourself and in your organization It also includes a sample of Arbinger's latest bestseller The Outward Mindset

The Five Legends , Anasazi Foundation, 2019-01-08 Drawing on 30 years of helping families in crisis this profound fable by the Anasazi Foundation illustrates the anguish of conflict and shows how we can end war within ourselves within families and even between nations The Five Legends tells the story of two estranged brothers leaders of their people who find themselves on an unexpected journey Struggling against each other they stumble and fall into a great and terrible canyon Trapped the two brothers are rescued by an old man the last of a people who offers to guide them out of the canyon if they agree to learn the five legends of peace The brothers agree and begin a journey that may not only save themselves but also their people The brothers learn that to heal any conflict we must first look within ourselves As this fable beautifully puts it War does not begin or end with armies and leaders In truth war begins and ends within each of us within our hearts When we choose to war with others we turn our hearts away from them and blind ourselves to their light To have a heart at war is to invite war into your life The path to peace begins when we stop thinking about me and start thinking about WE This poetic and moving allegory is written for all ages Its message is both timeless and desperately needed for our own time
