Burger King Fundraiser:

Fundraising Julia Fanthom, Fundraising events are designed to generate financial support by offering something in return to donors. Donors contribute not just out of goodwill but with the expectation of receiving a benefit or service in exchange. The nature of this exchange depends on the type of fundraising event organized. For instance a classic example is the car wash fundraiser where donors pay for their cars to be cleaned as part of the event. Other popular types of fundraising include benefit dinners, performances, bake sales, auctions, and sporting events. Each of these events provides something of value in return for the contributions received. A contemporary example of this is the televised fundraiser where celebrities encourage viewers to pledge donations which are then deposited into designated accounts.

Captive Audience Catherine Gidney, 2019-04-02 White Spot a popular BC restaurant chain solicits hamburger concepts from third and fourth grade students and one of the student's ideas becomes a feature on the kids menu. Home Depot donates playground equipment to an elementary school and the ribbon cutting ceremony culminates in a community swathed in corporate swag temporary tattoos and a new Home Depot song written by a teacher and sung by the children. Kindergarten students return home with a school district prescribed dental hygiene flyer featuring a maze leading to a tube of Crest toothpaste. Schools receive five cents for each flyer handed to a student. While commercialism has existed in our schools for over a century the corporate invasion of our schools reached unprecedented heights in the 1990s and 2000s after two decades of federal funding cuts and an increasing tendency to apply business models to the education system. Constant cutbacks have left school trustees, administrators, teachers, and parents with difficult decisions about how to finance programs and support students. Meanwhile studies on the impact of advertising and consumer culture on children make clear that the effects are harmful both to the individual child and the broader culture. Captive Audience explores this compelling history of branding the classroom in Canada.

The Giver and the Gift Peter Greer,David Weekley,2015-11-24 A Relational Approach to Fundraising For many people fundraising has become a dirty word Conjuring images of guilt inducing gimmickry the predominant model saps the joy from both the donor and the receiver But what if fundraising has the potential to be good for the giver not just the recipient What if it's about love and service not just What's in it for me These are the questions that Peter Greer president and CEO of Hope International and David Weekley one of America's most influential philanthropists answer in The Giver and the Gift Based upon their own relationship and experiences The Giver and the Gift outlines a Kingdom perspective on fundraising Instead of guilt there is gratitude Instead of obligation joy It's time to dismantle certain shaky beliefs and practices energizing a new generation of generosity How does fundraising become a Kingdom partnership instead of just the transfer of funds As a person who has spent years in the middle of these partnerships I found the book fresh clear and extremely helpful Denny Rydberg president of Young Life
