Engaging Students through Campus Libraries Gayle Schaub, Hazel McClure, 2020-10-06. This collection of collaborative, high impact learning experiences in information literacy teaches librarians how to engage students in hands on experiential learning. The Association of American Colleges and Universities AACU features librarians and faculty partners who engage in projects that highlight salient experiential facets of the AACU practices in order to teach information literacy. In this book, librarians will learn high impact experiential learning models for working with students. They will understand how to think about and describe how AACU best practices are currently embodied in their organizations. They will also imagine future learning experiences for students with HIPs in mind, resulting in information literacy that is integrated into disciplinary work in a vital and transformative way.

Persuasive Business Presentations Gary L. May, 2013-11-14. Business life is about persuasion. Effective managers advance their careers by identifying problems, developing solutions and persuading decision makers to provide the support and resources necessary to make things happen. This book focuses on a specific presentation context: a problem solution persuasive presentation to decision makers delivered in a conference room environment. Such presentations occur at every level in an organization. Therefore, team leaders, supervisors, managers and executives can all benefit from learning how to design and deliver powerful presentations that move decision makers to take action The author blends his extensive business experience with current research on persuasion to provide a practical applied approach to using the problem solution pattern An integrated case study provides examples for each step in the process The end result is a useful actionable guide that will help professionals from every field make a difference in their organization Business Communication
