

1. Negligence, intentional torts, and strict liabilities are all examples of torts. Principal objectives of tort law include all except:
  - a. To place the cost of compensating victims only on those parties who should bear it
  - b. To prevent future harms and losses
  - c. To compensate person who sustain harm or loss resulting from another's conduct
  - d. To punish the person who committed the tort.
2. The New Orleans times, a newspaper, wrote a series of articles about the dangers of alcohol during Mardi Gras, and the related annual celebrations. One article was about public intoxication offenses and included a photo of Kevin krewe, which was actually taken as he napped under a tree in a public park on a warm spring day. He was not intoxicated at the celebrations. If the paper printed his picture on the front page alone with the article about public intoxication, they would most likely:
  - A. Be liable for appropriation
  - B. Be liable for false light
  - C. Be liable for any tort
  - D. Be liable for intrusion
3. Merchants are concerned that when they try to stop suspected shoplifters, they might end up getting sued for false imprisonment. To avoid this possibility, most states have passed statutes to protect merchants as long as the merchant detains the suspect:
  - a. In a way that will not cause embarrassment or physical injury to the suspect.
  - b. With probable cause, in a reasonable manner, and for not more than a reasonable time.
  - c. For no more than 30 minutes.
  - d. Without causing physical discomfort
4. You needed some exercise and so you borrowed your neighbor's bike, which was lying in his front yard, to go to the store a few miles away. You returned it several hours later. He did not know you were taking it and had not given you permission to use it. What tort would include this conduct?
  - a. Only the crime of stealing
  - b. The tort of conversion
  - c. Either criminal or civil fraud
  - d. Trespass to personal property
5. Becoming angry, James threw a brick at waldo, intending to hit him. Waldo realized a brick had been thrown at him and ducked, thus avoiding being hit by the brick. However, the brick hit his friend Anna's car instead. James has:
  - a. Committed an assault against Waldo
  - b. No liability if the conduct would also be criminal in nature due to double jeopardy
  - c. Committed a battery against anna
  - d. Not committed a tort because he did not intent to damage Anna's car
6. There are several different types of defenses usually referred to as privileges in defamation cases. An absolute privilege does not provide protection from false statements in which of the following potential defamation cases?
  - a. statements made by the president of the US in the discharge of official duty
  - b. members of Congress on the floor of Congress
  - c. statements about a third party made to one spouse when the couple is alone
  - d. statements about an individual made to your close friend during a private conversation

Business Law Exam Questions Canada Practice:

Business Law in Canada Richard A. Yates, Teresa Bereznicki-Korol, Trevor Clarke, 1998 Appropriate for one semester courses in Business Law at both college and university levels in Alberta This Alberta specific text proceeds beyond general principles of law and describes the case law and particular statutory provisions that regulate business in Alberta Legal concepts and Canadian business applications are introduced in a concise one semester format The text is structured so that five chapters on contracts form the nucleus of the course and the balance provides stand alone sections that the instructor may choose to cover in any order The design is more reader friendly with a visually appealing four colour format as well as case synopses and extracts to enliven the solid text The result is a book that maintains the strong legal content of previous editions while introducing more real life examples of business law in practice Imperatives for Legal Education

Research Ben Golder, Marina Nehme, Alex Steel, Prue Vines, 2019-08-28 In the last few decades university teaching has been recognised as an activity which can be studied and improved through educational scholarship In some disciplines this is now well established It remains emergent in legal education The field is rich with questions to be answered issues to be raised This book provides the first overall review of legal education scholarship The chapters outline the history of legal education research and provide a detailed analysis of the trends in areas of publication Beyond this the book suggests a typology for further conceptualising the field and a series of suggested paths for future research The book originated from the 2017 UNSW conference Research in Legal Education State of the Art It features internationally respected authors who bring their perspectives on how legal education as a field of research should be conceptualised The collection is arranged into three themes First a historical view is taken of the emergence of legal education scholarship and its roots that predate modern educational theory Secondly the book provides overviews of the extant field of publications highlighting areas of interest and neglect and delineating the trends in current publication Thirdly the book provides a set of suggested typologies for describing legal education research and a series of essays for future directions which both critique current approaches and provide inspiration for future directions The State of Legal Education Research represents an authoritative introduction to the field a set of conceptual tools with which to describe it and inspiration for researchers to expand and grow research into legal education Legal Counselor and Form Book Charles Augustine Hawkins, 1910 Restrictive Business Practices
