Excellence in Business Communication John V. Thill, Courtland L. Bovée, 1999. This text presents the dynamics of business communication with a lively conversational writing style that takes students inside leading companies to 1 learn basic principles of business communication 2 understand important communication issues and 3 to profit from up to date discussions of the latest developments. Focuses on actual companies and business situations to successfully demonstrate how business communication works. Concentrates on the essential communication skills needed to succeed in business today: skills that help students gain a competitive edge whether as employees vying for corporate positions, entrepreneurs competing for sponsors or small business owners competing for customers. Offers practical realistic assignments giving students 1 vivid view of business communication 2 on the job practice applying newly learned principles and 3 exposure to all types and sizes of organizations both domestic and international.

Communicating at Work Ronald Brian Adler, Jeanne Marquardt Elmhorst, 2005. The leading text in business communication. Communicating at Work takes a pragmatic approach that features a strong multicultural focus, a heavy emphasis on effective presentations and a pedagogical program that is designed to encourage group activities and skill building. That plus clear writing and effective use of tables make the text an excellent teaching tool.
