Bursary For 2014 In Pietermaritzburg

Aziz Choudry, Salim Vally

Bursary For 2014 In Pietermaritzburg:

Postgraduate Research Engagement in Low Resource Settings Atibuni, Dennis Zami, 2019-09-27 The general academic progression and particularly research engagement of postgraduate students is characterized by various problems such as high dropout rates longer completion times low graduation rates and high repetition or retake rates This means that there are far fewer students pursuing postgraduate studies at tertiary institutions and universities than there are at the lower levels of education Yet there is growing demand for postgraduate education given its strong projected association with socioeconomic transformation at national and international levels among developed and developing countries alike Postgraduate Research Engagement in Low Resource Settings sets out to garner strategies for fostering efficiency of research conduct among the students and faculty so as to enhance high quality output for the envisaged personal societal national and international socioeconomic transformation Covering a range of topics such as intellectual property mental health and quality assurance this book is ideal for research supervisors higher education faculty librarians educators administrators researchers academicians and students

Reflections on Knowledge, Learning and Social Movements Aziz Choudry, Salim Vally, 2017-12-12 How do educators and activists in today s struggles for change use historical materials from earlier periods of organizing for political education How do they create and engage with independent and often informal archives and debates How do they ultimately connect this historical knowledge with contemporary struggles Reflections on Knowledge Learning and Social Movements aims to advance the understanding of relationships between learning knowledge production history and social change In four sections this unique collection explores Engagement with activist movement archives Learning and teaching militant histories Lessons from liberatory and anti imperialist struggles Learning from student youth and education struggles Six chapters foreground insights from the breadth and diversity of South Africa s rich progressive social movements while others explore connections between ideas and practices of historical and contemporary struggles in other parts of the world including Argentina Iran Britain Palestine and the US Besides its great relevance to scholars and students of Education Sociology and History this innovative title will be of particular interest to adult educators labour educators archivists community workers and others concerned with education for social change
