church Prejudices between ethnic groups are not broken down by segregation The basic biblical doctrine is that humanity is one in God s eyes There is one heaven and one hell There is one Mediator between God and humanity There is only one church universal and only one true work of God and one true people of God Though to seek to bring people from different cultures together in one church is challenging and even hazardous on some levels to leave this undone brings even more dangers Is there no place on earth where the Prince of Peace is revealing Himself as the Prince of Peace Is there no place on earth where the One to whom every knee shall bow in heaven and on earth and under the earth is bowing together now The risks and challenges are real but so are the dangers of inaction The human race must realize its essential unity and learn to live together harmoniously What better place to experience this than among the redeemed of the Lord The song of redemption and of joy must be sung among the nations and even if the cadences are expressed differently the hearts of believers still must be united in thankful praise of our Redeemer If peace on earth will be a reality before Christ returns the local church should lead the way as they are enabled by the Spirit of Christ Chapters Why the International church The Challenge of Continuity The Power of Experiencing God The Challenges of Multiculturalism The Gospel through Different Eyes Dealing with the Discontent What I Would Do Differently Reclaiming the Future And an appendix Building A Common Narrative in an International Church

Building a Multicultural Church : the Importance of Relationships James Harold Stewart, 2017 In a multicultural church setting is it possible to experience unity in the midst of diversity In this research I present findings about the growth health and effectiveness of multicultural churches that have been impacted by globalization through personal spiritual formation and global influence Quantitative data gathered through research conducted with members of the church I pastored confirmed the general lack of understanding and practice of spiritual disciplines as well as minimal engagement in ministry and outreach endeavors Interviews with several pastors of multicultural churches who were experiencing growth proved beneficial and each of these pastors sensed the growth they were experiencing was organic or accidental This qualitative data revealed several commonalities in leadership dynamics and community practices as well as similar challenges and pitfalls they had encountered in leading and building community in their respective multicultural churches In the middle of the doctoral journey at Fuller I transitioned from pastoring a mega church in Canada to a small church in Florida but these churches shared a common ingredient that being they are both multicultural in makeup This move provided me with the opportunity to test the leadership dynamics and community practices while bringing healthy change to this new church setting providing a solid foundation to initiate growth spiritually numerically and missionally Ultimately the foundation for the ministry is centered on the words of Jesus paraphrased from Matthew 22:37-39 love God love people Relationship is everything
