Before After Muhammad Millennium Refocused:

Before and After Muhammad Garth Fowden,2013-11-21 A new historical framework integrating Islam into European and Asian history Islam emerged amid flourishing Christian and Jewish cultures yet students of Antiquity and the Middle Ages mostly ignore it Despite intensive study of late Antiquity over the last fifty years even generous definitions of this period have reached only the eighth century whereas Islam did not mature sufficiently to compare with Christianity or rabbinic Judaism until the tenth century Before and After Muhammad suggests a new way of thinking about the historical relationship between the scriptural monotheisms integrating Islam into European and West Asian history Garth Fowden identifies the whole of the First Millennium from Augustus and Christ to the formation of a recognizably Islamic worldview by the time of the philosopher Avicenna as the proper chronological unit of analysis for understanding the emergence and maturation of the three monotheistic faiths across Eurasia Fowden proposes not just a chronological expansion of late Antiquity but also an eastward shift in the geographical frame to embrace Iran In Before and After Muhammad Fowden looks at Judaism Christianity and Islam alongside other important developments in Greek philosophy and Roman law to reveal how the First Millennium was bound together by diverse exegetical traditions that nurtured communities and often stimulated each other Arabs and Empires Before Islam Greg Fisher,2015 Arabs and Empires before Islam collates nearly 250 translated extracts from an extensive array of ancient sources which from a variety of different perspectives illuminate the history of the Arabs before the emergence of Islam    Pre-Islamic Arabia Valentina A. Grasso,2023-02-23 Explores the composite cultural and political milieu of pre Islamic Arabia situating its history within the broader late antique context    Florilegia Syriaca: Mapping a Knowledge-Organizing Practice in the Syriac World Emiliano Fiori,Bishara Ebeid,2023-02-17 From the 6th century onwards Syriac patristic florilegia collections of Greek patristic excerpts in Syriac translation progressively became a prominent form through which Syriac and Arab Christians shaped their knowledge of theology In these collections early Greek Christian literature underwent a substantial process of selection and re organization The papers collected in this volume study Syriac florilegia in their own right as cultural products possessing their own specific textuality and outline a phenomenology of Syriac patristic florilegia by mapping their diffusion and relevance in time and space from the 6th to the 17th century from the Roman Empire to China    Demons in the Details Sara Ronis,2025-04-15 The Babylonian Talmud is full of stories of demonic encounters and it also includes many laws that attempt to regulate such encounters In this book Sara Ronis takes the reader on a journey across the rabbinic canon exploring how late antique rabbis imagined feared and controlled demons Ronis contextualizes the Talmud s thought within the rich cultural matrix of Sasanian Babylonia placing rabbinic thinking in conversation with Sumerian Akkadian Ugaritic Syriac Christian Zoroastrian and Second Temple Jewish texts about demons to delve into the interactive communal context in which the rabbis created boundaries between the human and the supernatural and between themselves and other religious communities Demons in the Details explores the wide range of ways that the rabbis participated in broader discussions about beliefs and practices with their neighbors out of which they created a profoundly Jewish demonology Constructions of Gender in Religious Traditions of Late Antiquity Kathy Ehrensperger, Juni Hoppe, Shayna Sheinfeld, 2024-03-26 This volume examines questions concerning the construction of gender and identity in the earliest days of what is now Judaism Christianity and Islam Methodologically explicit the contributions analyze textual and material sources related to these religious traditions in their cultural contexts The sources examined are predominantly products of patriarchal elite discourses requiring innovative approaches to unveil aspects of gender otherwise hidden This volume extends the discussion represented in the volume Gender and Second Temple Judaism 2020 and highlights the fruitfulness of interdisciplinary research beyond anachronistic discipline distinctions Languages and Cultures of Eastern Christianity: Greek Scott Fitzgerald Johnson, 2017-05-15 This volume brings together a set of fundamental contributions many translated into English for this publication along with an important introduction Together these explore the role of Greek among Christian communities in the late antique and Byzantine East late Roman Oriens specifically in the areas outside of the immediate sway of Constantinople and imperial Asia Minor The local identities based around indigenous eastern Christian languages Syriac Coptic Armenian Georgian etc and post Chalcedonian doctrinal confessions Miaphysite Church of the East Melkite Maronite were solidifying precisely as the Byzantine polity in the East was extinguished by the Arab conquests of the seventh century In this multilayered cultural environment Greek was a common social touchstone for all of these Christian communities not only because of the shared Greek heritage of the early Church but also because of the continued value of Greek theological hagiographical and liturgical writings However these interactions were dynamic and living so that the Greek of the medieval Near East was itself transformed by such engagement with eastern Christian literature appropriating new ideas and new texts into the Byzantine repertoire in the process Der historische Muhammad in der islamischen Theologie Zishan Ghaffar, 2018 Who was the prophet Muhammad according to Islamic tradition and what can we know historically about the stations of his life What are the hermeneutical presumptions of that constant quest for a concrete image of prophet of Islam The present study aims to analyze criteria of authenticity for the reconstruction of the Life of Muhammad Contrasting the quest for the historical Muhammad with the utmost comparable quest for the historical Jesus this study offers a critique of tendentious research on early Islam At the same time the hermeneutical implications of contextualizing Muhammad and the early Muslim community in Late Antiquity are discussed The result of this study is a methodological overview of the most promising criteria of authenticity in the quest for the historical Muhammad and its significance for an emerging Islamic theology Wie können wir wissen wer der historische Muhammad war Welche Rolle spielt diese historiographische Fragestellung in der islamischen Theologie Der Autor stellt die Frage nach zuverlässigen Kriterien für eine historische Rekonstruktion von Muhammad Zishan Ghaffar stellt dabei die Leben Muhammad Forschung der Leben Jesu Forschung gegenüber Dieser vergleichende Ansatz erleichtert die Bestimmung der wichtigsten Kriterien für die historische Frage nach Muhammad. Mit dieser Grundlage hat der Autor eine geschichts hermeneutische Voraussetzung geschaffen um Mohammed in einen breiten Kontext zu setzen beispielsweise seine Bedeutung in der ursprünglichen Gemeinde in der späten antiken Umwelt und seine Einbeziehung in die islamische Theologie

The Legal 500, 2002    The Theology Of Time - The Secret of Time Elijah Muhammad, 2008-11-06 The Theology of Time is a 20 lecture book. The lecture series ranged from June thru October 1972. It wasn't uncommon to either hear him on radio broadcasts or one of his ministers. Having been prohibited to speak by Allah up to this point this represented a significant occasion. Elijah Muhammad covered a wide and comprehensive overview of his entire program concepts and lessons. This is by far the most wide ranging example of his teaching. Many of the subjects he taught were scattered over the entire period which is why in this direct transcribed version is made available thus leaving the subjects in the exact order the Messenger taught them. There is also a subject Indexed version which grouped the subjects together instead of leaving them scattered see ISBN 1884855628. Both are complete.

Is the Coming of Christ Before Or After the Millennium? Isaac Massey Haldeman, 1917    Muhammad and His Power Peirce de Lacy Henry Johnstone, 2015-06-02 Excerpt from

Muhammad and His Power. So much has been written and so much learning and study devoted to the history of Muhammad and the religious and political power which he founded and which now after thirteen centuries seems as a religion not less firmly established than ever it was that one who approaches the subject to day cannot hope to do much more than sift and select from the labours of those who have gone before him. The struggle of Christianity with the forces of Islam began within five years of the Flight from Mecca but the study of its documents and the history of its rise and progress that is of course by those who are outside its pale has been the growth of the last century and a half. In our own country the strength and scarcely less the weaknesses of the founder and of the system have roused the admiration of Gibbon and Carlyle have been the object of profound study by such scholars and administrators as Edward Lane and Sir William Muir and have been the goal of travellers like Richard Burton and Gifford Palgrave Burkhardt and Carsten Niebuhr. The Quest of the Historical Muhammad and Other Studies on Formative Islam Stephen J. Shoemaker, 2024-07-09 The lead essay in this book is the first effort to approach the historical figure of Muhammad in a manner comparable to the investigations that biblical scholars have made in the effort to recover the historical figure of Jesus. Using comparable methods and approaches this study demonstrates that despite a widely held belief that Islam was born in the full light of history we in fact know considerably less about both Muhammad and the beginnings of Islam than we do about the historical Jesus and the beginnings of Christianity Also included are republications of four previously published essays dealing with such topics as the Qur'an's status as a late ancient biblical apocryphon the relation between the Jerusalem Temple and the Holy House revered by the Qur'an and the imminent eschatology of the Qur'an and the early Islamic tradition The Eye of the Beholder Uri Rubin, 2024-02 Detailed examination of traditions about Muhammad which illustrate particular themes thought to be part of the biblical prophetic paradigm attestation preparation the experience of revelation persecution and salvation this last meaning the hijra The author analyzes the ways in which Muhammad's early biographers sought to shape the Prophet's biography through biblically based and later Qur'anic modes of authentication The author has abandoned the quest for the historical Muhammad because of the impossibility of separating the real Muhammad from legends about him He challenges the notion that earlier traditions about Muhammad are more authentic than later ones arguing that the molding of accounts of Muhammad's life according to what were perceived as standard criteria of prophethood began at the outset as Muslims sought to prove themselves worthy successors to the civilizations of the Jews and the Christians
