The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and
saves those who are crushed in spirit.

Versification Frog, Satu Grünthal, Kati Kallio, Jarkko Niemi, 2021-12-24 Versification describes the marriage of language and poetic form through which poetry is produced Formal principles such as metre alliteration rhyme or parallelism take precedence over syntax and prosody resulting in expressions becoming organised as verse rather than prose The aesthetic appeal of poetry is often linked to the potential for this process to seem mysterious or almost magical not to mention the interplay of particular expressions with forms and expectations The dynamics of versification thus draw a general interest for everyone from enthusiasts of poetry or forms of verbal art to researchers of folklore ethnomusicology linguistics literature philology and more The authors of the works in the present volume explore versification from a variety of angles and in diverse cultural milieus The focus is on metrics in practice meaning that the authors concentrate not so much on the analysis of the metrical systems per se as on the ways that metres are used and varied in performance by individual poets and in relationship to language Computational Linguistics and Intelligent Text Processing Alexander Gelbukh, 2018-03-20 The two volume set LNCS 9623 9624 constitutes revised selected papers from the CICLing 2016 conference which took place in Konya Turkey in April 2016 The total of 89 papers presented in the two volumes was carefully reviewed and selected from 298 submissions The book also contains 4 invited papers and a memorial paper on Adam Kilgarrieff s Legacy to Computational
