History of Civilizations of Central Asia Ahmad Hasan Dani, Vadim Michajlovič Masson, Vadim Mikhailovich Masson, 1999-01-01 Art of the Bronze Age Holly Pittman, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1984 Urban Cultures of Central Asia from the Bronze Age to the Karakhanids Christoph Baumer, Mirko Novák, 2019 For the first time a comprehensive presentation of the development of urban cultures in Central Asia from the Early Bronze Age around 3000 BC to the Middle Ages about 1200 AD is exemplarily illuminated in this book on the basis of individual research projects The treated area extends from Turkmenistan to Mongolia and was home to cultures such as the Bronze Age Bactria Margiana Archaeological Complex BMAC the Sogdian of the Iron Age the early Parthian or various early medieval ones namely in the Zhetysay Seven Stream country in the southeast of Kazakhstan The urban civilizations that developed here were closely interrelated on the one hand with the cultures of the nomadic ranchers who traversed and inhabited this vast region and on the other hand with the more developed neighboring civilizations of the Near East and the Far East Thus the region became a diverse exchange zone of cultural and religious influences and also played a major role in the transmission of cultural impulses 0The richly illustrated book reflects the contributions of a conference that took place in Bern in 2016 and includes 28 contributions from 50 researchers from 14 countries The results of many of the excavations presented here will be published in English for the first time Each article is accompanied by an extensive bibliography and a Russian abstract

Urban Cultures of Central Asia from the Bronze Age to the Karakhanids Christoph Baumer, 2019 History of Central Asia, The: 4-volume set Christoph Baumer, 2018-04-18 This set includes all four volumes of the critically acclaimed History of Central Asia series The epic plains and arid deserts of Central Asia have witnessed some of the greatest migrations as well as many of the most transformative developments in the history of civilization Christoph Baumer's ambitious four volume treatment of the region charts the 3000 year drama of Scythians and Sarmatians Soviets and transcontinental Silk Roads trade routes and the transmission of ideas across the steppes and the breathless and brutal conquests of Alexander the Great and Chinghiz Khan Masterfully interweaving the stories of individuals and peoples the author's engaging prose is richly augmented throughout by colour photographs taken on his own travels This set includes The Age of the Steppe Warriors Volume 1 The Age of the Silk Roads Volume 2 The Age of Islam and the Mongols Volume 3 and The Age of Decline and Revival Volume 4 A Central Asian Village at the Dawn of Civilization Fredrik T. Hiebert, 2011-03-19 This integration of earlier and new scholarship reconceptualizes the origins of civilization challenging the received view that the ancient Near East spawned the spread of civilization outward from Mesopotamia to all other neighboring cultures Central Asia is here shown to have been a major player in the development of cities Skillfully documenting the different phases of both Soviet and earlier Western external analyses along with recent excavation results this new interpretation reveals Central Asia's role in the socioeconomic and political processes linked to both the Iranian Plateau and the Indus Valley showing how it contributed substantively to the origins of urbanism in the Old World Hiebert's research at Anau and his focus on the Chalcolithic levels provide an essential starting point for understanding both the nature of village life and the historical trajectories that resulted in Bronze Age urbanism University Museum Monograph 116 The Bronze Age and Early Iron Age Peoples of Eastern Central Asia: Archeology, migration and nomadism, linguistics Victor H. Mair, 1998 Treasures from the Oxus Massimo Vidale, 2017-06-21 In history this grand arterial 1500 mile waterway was always seen as the natural frontier between the northern provinces of the Iranian empires and the outer Turanian lands It was for centuries central to Achaemenid and later Persian power But as the author shows it has a prehistory which goes very much further back and a succession of skilled yet still elusive Bronze Age cultures flourished here well before the rise of Cyrus the Great in the 6th century BCE This richly illustrated book explores the fascinating history art and archaeology of the region including its primal trade in silk and foodstuffs the mineral wealth of the Oxus basin its exotic myths and beliefs and the converging tribes and peoples which led to a new stability economic growth and urbanism The volume contains 150 full colour photographs of notable artefacts including silver decorated vessels inlaid stone pots agate beads and 25 Bactrian Princesses remarkable statuettes made in chlorite and limestone Most of these rare objects have never been seen let alone published before The Making of Bronze Age Eurasia Philip L. Kohl, 2007-01-22 This book provides an overview of Bronze Age societies of Western Eurasia through an investigation of the archaeological record The Making of Bronze Age Eurasia outlines the long term processes and patterns of interaction that link these groups together in a shared historical trajectory of development Interactions took the form of the exchange of raw materials and finished goods the spread and sharing of technologies and the movements of peoples from one region to another Kohl reconstructs economic activities from subsistence practices to the production and exchange of metals and other materials Kohl also argues forcefully that the main task of the archaeologist should be to write culture history on a spatially and temporally grand scale in an effort to detect large macrohistorical processes of interaction and shared development

History of Civilizations of Central Asia: The dawn of civilization, earliest time to 700 B.C Ahmad Hasan Dani,1999

History of civilizations of Central Asia Adle, Chahryar,Baipakov, Karl M.,Habib, Irfan,UNESCO,2003-12-31 The period treated in this volume is highlighted by the slow retreat of nomadism and the progressive increase of sedentary polities owing to a fundamental change in military technology Furthermore this period certainly saw a growing contrast in the pace of economic and cultural progress between Central Asia and Europe The internal growth of the European economies and the influx of silver from the New World gave Atlantic Europe an increasingly important position in world trade and caused a major shift in inland Asian trade Thus 1850 marks the end of the total sway of pre modern culture as the extension of colonial dominance was accompanied by the influx of modern ideas
