Louise-Elisabeth

Vigee Le Brun Judith Lissauer Cromwell,2025-05-16 This biography follows the remarkable life of Louise Elisabeth Vigee Le

Brun whose portraits of European royalty and nobility hang in many of the world's most important galleries. As a young woman in the male dominated society of late 18th century France she was denied an artistic education and forced to nurture her passion outside the restrictions of conventional schooling. Vigée Le Brun's vibrant art in addition to her charm and beauty caught the attention of Queen Marie Antoinette who honored her as her chosen painter. At the pinnacle of her fame and fortune however the Revolution forced Vigée Le Brun to flee Old Regime France leaving everything behind except her only child. Drawn from her memoirs archival research and reexamination of the judgment of her contemporaries this book portrays a single working mother who survived because of her cachet charisma and artistic talent. Cast on a storm tossed continent solely reliant on her palette Vigée Le Brun produced some of her major works during her twelve year exile returning to France to continue her work after Napoleon had restored stability. Her story is one of triumph adversity perseverance and ultimately peace.

Gender and Art Colin Cunningham, Emma Barker, 1999-01-01. Encompassing European art architecture and design from the sixteenth century to the present day it explores both the work of women artists and the ways that visual representation by male and female artists may be gendered.

Courage Tastes of Blood Florencia E. Mallon, 2005-10-28. Until now very little about the recent history of the Mapuche Chile's largest indigenous group has been available to English language readers. Courage Tastes of Blood helps to rectify this situation. It tells the story of one Mapuche community Nicol's Ail o located in the south of the country across the entire twentieth century from its founding in the resettlement process that followed the military defeat of the Mapuche by the Chilean state at the end of the nineteenth century. Florencia E. Mallon places oral histories gathered from community members over an extended period of time in the 1990s in dialogue with one another and with her research.

in national and regional archives Taking seriously the often quite divergent subjectivities and political visions of the community's members Mallon presents an innovative historical narrative one that reflects a mutual collaboration between herself and the residents of Nicol's Ailo Mallon recounts the land usurpation Nicol's Ailo endured in the first decades of the twentieth century and the community's ongoing struggle for restitution Facing extreme poverty and inspired by the agrarian mobilizations of the 1960s some community members participated in the agrarian reform under the government of socialist president Salvador Allende With the military coup of 1973 they suffered repression and desperate impoverishment Out of this turbulent period the Mapuche revitalization movement was born What began as an effort to protest the privatization of community lands under the military dictatorship evolved into a broad movement for cultural and political recognition that continues to the present day By providing the historical and local context for the emergence of the Mapuche revitalization movement Courage Tastes of Blood offers a distinctive perspective on the evolution of Chilean democracy and its rupture with the military coup of 1973
