M. Coetzee, 2016-09-20 The idea of human cruelty to animals so consumes novelist Elizabeth Costello in her later years that she can no longer look another person in the eye humans especially meat eating ones seem to her to be conspirators in a crime of stupefying magnitude taking place on farms and in slaughterhouses factories and laboratories across the world Costello's son a physics professor admires her literary achievements but dreads his mother's lecturing on animal rights at the college where he teaches His colleagues resist her argument that human reason is overrated and that the inability to reason does not diminish the value of life his wife denounces his mother's vegetarianism as a form of moral superiority At the dinner that follows her first lecture the guests confront Costello with a range of sympathetic and skeptical reactions to issues of animal rights touching on broad philosophical anthropological and religious perspectives Painfully for her son Elizabeth Costello seems offensive and flaky but dare he admit it strangely on target In this landmark book Nobel Prize winning writer J M Coetzee uses fiction to present a powerfully moving discussion of animal rights in all their complexity He draws us into Elizabeth Costello's own sense of mortality her compassion for animals and her alienation from humans even from her own family In his fable presented as a Tanner Lecture sponsored by the University Center for Human Values at Princeton University Coetzee immerses us in a drama reflecting the real life situation at hand a writer delivering a lecture on an emotionally charged issue at a prestigious university Literature philosophy performance and deep human conviction Coetzee brings all these elements into play As in the story of Elizabeth Costello the Tanner Lecture is followed by responses treating the reader to a variety of perspectives delivered by leading thinkers in different fields Coetzee's text is accompanied by an introduction by political philosopher Amy Gutmann and responsive essays by religion scholar Wendy Doniger primatologist Barbara Smuts literary theorist Marjorie Garber and moral philosopher Peter Singer author of Animal Liberation Together the lecture fable and the essays explore the palpable social consequences of uncompromising moral conflict and confrontation The Tanner Lectures on Human Values, 1980

Systemic Creative Cognition Frédéric Vallée-Tourangeau, 2023-06-30 This unique book explores how the conceptual framework of science and technology studies can be applied to creativity and problem solving research drawing from and building on the work of Bruno Latour Using an interdisciplinary approach the book outlines new research practices to capture the origin of ideas Latour enjoins researchers to adopt a resolutely ethnographic methodology to trace the process by which a creative product be it a technological innovation or a work of art is constructed or instaurated Creativity is explained in terms of the microprocesses that guide and constrain the development of a new idea These microprocesses operate on and are triggered by material objects be they maquettes models drafts or data representations The resulting perspective is systemic casting creativity as emerging from the interaction among heterogeneous elements and actants The book provides critical reflections on problem solving research and stresses the importance of William James's radical empiricism and the primary role of experience The book redefines the concept of insight as an outcome rather than the cause of a new idea The book uses the work of Latour to cast a new light on the field of creative cognition and will be an essential read for researchers and students of creativity and cognition It will also be relevant for anyone interested in understanding the origin of creativity ideas and thoughts      Collected Critical Writings Geoffrey Hill,2009 The Collected Critical Writings gathers more than forty years of Hill s published criticism in a revised final form and also adds much new work It will serve as the canonical volume of criticism by Hill the pre eminent poet critic whom A N Wilson has called probably the best writer alive in verse or in prose In his criticism Hill ranges widely investigating both poets including Jonson Dryden Hopkins Whitman Eliot and Yeats and prose writers such as Tyndale Clarendon Hobbes Burton Emerson and F H Bradley He is also steeped in the historical context political poetic and religious of the writers he studies Most importantly he brings texts and contexts into new and telling relations neither reducing texts to the circumstances of their utterance nor imagining that they can float free of them A number of the essays have already established themselves as essential reading on particular subjects such as his analysis of Vaughan s The Night his discussion of Gurney s poetry and his critical account of The Oxford English Dictionary Others confront the problems of language and the nature of value directly as in Our Word is Our Bond Language Suffering and Value and Poetry and Value In all his criticism Hill reveals literature to be an essential arena of civic intelligence      Thomas Hardy and Animals Anna West,2017-04-19 Thomas Hardy and Animals looks at creatures in Hardy s novels examining human animal boundaries debated by the Victorian scientific and philosophical communities      Citizenship and Democratic Doubt Bob Pepperman Taylor,2004 Much of the world today views America as an imperialist nation bent on global military economic and cultural domination At home few share this negative view Bob Pepperman Taylor however argues that US moral self righteousness may potentially imperil democratic ideals and threaten democracy      Tanner Lectures on Human Values ,1997      The Tanner Lectures on Human Values, 1983 Sterling M. Ellis,1998 Political correctness idealizing the oppressed and an affinity for authoritarian and charismatic leaders are all parts of what Ellis calls the dark side of the left      The Doctrine of Double Effect Paul A. Woodward,2001 Philosophers and ethicists debate this controversial moral principle including actions intentions consequences unintended consequences intentional unintentional evil etc illustrating its application to current moral dilemmas such as war suicide nuclear power affirmative action and morphine use for terminal cancer patients      Postmodern Philosophy and Law Douglas E.

Litowitz,1997 The author presents a two tiered analysis that views postmodern legal thought as both a collective intellectual movement and as the work of particular theorists notably Friedrich Nietzsche Michel Foucault Jacques Derrida Francois Lyotard and Richard Rorty He concludes that even though postmodern thought does not give rise to a normative theory of right that can be used as a framework for deciding cases it can focus attention on genealogy and discourse and can empower those who have been denied a voice in the legal system Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      Social Theory and Practice ,2014-04
