Leadership-As-Practice Vasilisa Takoeva, 2021-04-20 One current challenge of conducting research from the leadership as practice perspective is a practical one how to capture and analyse the elusive practice of leadership within the web of mundane organising processes Although a number of researchers have attempted to address the issue there is not yet a definitive how to guide to making sense of the empirical manifestations of leadership practices The book responds directly to this challenge and offers a theoretical framework and practical guidance to capturing identifying and analysing evidence of leadership practice emergence and provides implications of this approach for leadership academics and practitioners The developed framework enables a method for understanding these leadership instances as they are enacted by individuals within and against the evolving activities of their day to day work The framework is underpinned by cultural historical activity theory and critical realism and it conceptualises leadership practice by placing agents actions and interactions within the context of their relationships objectives experiences material and non material artefacts and wider organising processes and organisational structures work that has not yet been undertaken in the field It offers a strong theoretical foundation for further development of our understanding of leadership as practice providing a methodological guidance for undertaking leadership as practice research and enables a discussion on the variety of underlying processes and elements as they emerge from empirical observations It will be of value to researchers academics professionals and students in the fields of business and management with a particular interest in management theory organisational studies and leadership research

Co-Production and Co-Creation Taco Brandsen, Bram Verschuere, Trui Steen, 2018-03-15 Co production and co creation occur when citizens participate actively in delivering and designing the services they receive It has come increasingly onto the agenda of policymakers as interest in citizen participation has more generally soared Expectations are high and it is regarded as a possible solution to the public sector's decreased legitimacy and dwindling resources by accessing more of society's capacities In addition it is seen as part of a more general drive to reinvigorate voluntary participation and strengthen social cohesion in an increasingly fragmented and individualized society Co Production and Co Creation Engaging Citizens in Public Services offers a systematic and comprehensive theoretical and empirical examination of the concepts of co production and co creation and their application in practice It shows the latest state of knowledge on the topic and will be of interest both to students at an advanced level academics and reflective practitioners It addresses the topics with regard to co production and co creation and will be of interest to researchers academics policymakers and students in the fields of public administration business administration economics political science public management political science service management sociology and voluntary sector studies

The Palgrave Handbook of Educational Leadership and Management Discourse Fenwick W. English,2022-10-13 This Handbook explores the discourse within the field of educational leadership and management It provides a clear analysis of the current field as well as older foundational ideas and newer concepts which are beginning to permeate the discussion The field of educational leadership and management has long acknowledged that educational contexts include a variety of leaders beyond school principals and other school officials such as informal and middle level leaders By looking at the knowledge dynamic rather than a static knowledge base this Handbook allows research to be presented in its multidimensional evolving reality

Dialogue in Organizations M. Reitz, 2015-04-14 In politics business and society better leadership and dialogue are seen as antidotes to the paradoxical issues of the modern world. This book illustrates how the compulsion for busyness the assumptions about who leaders are and the adherence to implicitly held cultural norms threaten the possibility of effective dialogue in organizations.
