Affective Movements, Methods and Pedagogies Anne Harris, Stacy Holman Jones, 2020-12-09 Affective Movements Methods and Pedagogies invites readers to think with affect about performance pedagogies and their inherent activist embodied and collective natures. It works across multiple spheres to help readers understand how to deploy affective approaches rather than to simply think with affect theory about traditional methods. The book is structured and curated across three main thematic sections: affective movements, methods, and pedagogies, each of which treats the core explorations of affect and performance through a different perspective. It is concerned with the ways performance and theatrical methods work with and through a theoretic of affect. The sixteen chapters include work that models theoretical practices in writing and demonstrates how theorising affect and its methods is itself a performative practice. The contributors offer rich examples from diverse geopolitical as well as disciplinary contexts: innovative methods and finally intersectional theoretic. This collection will be of interest to higher education students exploring methodologies and academic researchers and teachers in the fields of performance studies, communication, critical studies, sociology, and the arts.

The Perception Machine Joanna Zylińska, 2023-11-07 A provocative investigation of the future of photography and human perception in the age of AI. We are constantly photographing and being photographed while feeding machine learning databases with our data, which in turn is used to generate new images. Analyzing the transformation of photography by computation and the transformation of human perception by algorithmically driven images from CGI to AI, The Perception Machine investigates what it means for us to live surrounded by image flows and machine eyes. In an astute and engaging argument, Joanna Zylińska brings together media theory and neuroscience in a Vilém Flusser Paul Virilio remix. Her perception machine names a technical universe of images and their infrastructures. But it also refers to a sociopolitical condition resulting from today's automation of vision, imaging, and imagination. Written by a theorist-practitioner, the book incorporates Zylińska's own art projects, some of which have been co-created with AI. The photographs, collages, films, and installations available as part of the book and its companion website provide a different mode of thinking about our technological futures at a local as well as a planetary level. Offering provocative concepts such as eco-eco punk, AUTO FOTO KINO, planetary micro vision, loser images, and sensography, the book outlines an existential philosophy of messy media for a time when our practices of imaging and self-imaging are being radically redesigned. Importantly, it also offers a new vision of our future.

Release Print, 2000 The Harvard Conference on the Internet & Society O'Reilly & Associates, 1997 Today's hottest Internet technologies; they also explore the important issues regarding precisely what is at stake for a society with greater and growing ties to cyberspace. The State Boys Rebellion Michael D'Antonio, 2007-11-01 A Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist tells the amazing story of how a group of imprisoned boys won their freedom, found justice, and survived one of the darkest and least known episodes of American history In the early twentieth century United States health officials used IQ tests to single out feeble-minded children and force them into institutions where they were denied education sterilized drugged and abused Under programs that ran into the 1970s more than 250 000 children were separated from their families although many of them were merely unwanted orphans truants or delinquents The State Boys Rebellion conveys the shocking truth about America's eugenic era through the experiences of a group of boys held at the Fernald State School in Massachusetts starting in the late 1940s In the tradition of Erin Brockovich it recounts the boys' dramatic struggle to demand their rights and secure their freedom It also covers their horrifying discovery many years later that they had been fed radioactive oatmeal in Cold War experiments and the subsequent legal battle that ultimately won them a multimillion-dollar settlement Meticulously researched through school archives previously sealed papers and interviews with the surviving State Boys this deft exposé is a powerful reminder of the terrifying consequences of unchecked power as well as an inspiring testament to the strength of the human spirit

DAWN OF THE APOCALYPSE Edgar Allan Poe, William Hope Hodgson, Jack London, Ernest Bramah, Jonathan Swift, Cleveland Moffett, Anthony Trollope, Richard Jefferies, William Dean Howells, Ayn Rand, Samuel Butler, Milo Hastings, Edward Bellamy, Fritz Leiber, Irving E. Cox, Philip Francis Nowlan, Richard Stockham, Ignatius Donnelly, Owen Gregory, H. G. Wells, E. M. Forster, Fred M. DAWN OF THE APOCALYPSE gathers the pinnacle of speculative fiction to explore end times across diverse landscapes from the desolate to the dystopian It stitches a rich tapestry of literary approaches ranging from the classic gothic horror of Edgar Allan Poe to the socio-political dystopias envisioned by Ayn Rand and H. G. Wells and the unique utopian perspective of Edward Bellamy The anthology thrives on its variety not just in the cataclysmic events it portrays but also in the myriad ways these events are perceived and interpreted by its characters Key pieces within this collection stand as milestones in the science-fiction genre framing apocalyptic and post-apocalyptic narratives as lenses through which we critique and comprehend contemporary societal fears The authors both pioneers and craftsmen of their time come from a broad spectrum of backgrounds each contributing to the anthology's overarching theme with their unique flavor of apocalypse These writers are not just storytellers but visionaries who collectively paint a multifaceted picture of humanity at the brink They belonged to and were influenced by a range of historical cultural and literary movements from the romanticism and transcendentalism of the 19th century to the early 20th century's modernism and the budding science-fiction genre Their combined works offer a historical capsule of societal anxieties and hopes reflecting on themes of human resilience the abuse of technology and the moral dilemmas of progress DAWN OF THE APOCALYPSE is an essential collection for readers eager to dive into the depths of human imagination faced with its own end It offers an unparalleled opportunity to traverse the vast landscapes of apocalyptic fiction through the eyes of some of the most influential authors in literary history This anthology not only serves as an academic goldmine for those studying the evolution of speculative fiction and its impact on society but also provides a timeless reflection on humanity's perennial concerns with its own survival and legacy Readers are invited to witness the end of worlds not just as an exercise in literary exploration but as a mirror to our collective psyche across generations
