Abraham Lincoln Atul Dubal,2014 It has been almost 150 years since the great civil war was fought in the United States and in this bloody civil war which killed more than 600 000 soldiers Abraham Lincoln emerged as a statesman who preserved the Union and abolished slavery Lincoln s journey from a country lawyer in Illinois to the greatest U S presidents has been well documented However there is not a lot of literature around his distinctive leadership qualities and how they shaped the future of America Lincoln was not the primary choice of the Republican Party as a nominee in the Presidential election of 1860 In fact he was the fourth choice In spite of this his supporters managed to nominate him as the party s candidate and he won the election Lincoln s generosity and kind heartedness are legendary. With these traits he changed the hearts of many of his political enemies, some of whom eventually helped elect him to the Presidency. His Presidency faced some of the biggest crises the US has ever seen and through his leadership the country was able to stay united in extremely delicate circumstances. He achieved seemingly impossible feats in the four years of his Presidency. This work explores the qualities which made him a great leader and how they can help today's business leaders surmount the massive problems they face.
