David Weber,2005-05 There are dozens of other funding directories describing college aid But none of them are like this one First unlike other directories the High School Senior s Guide focuses only on merit and no need scholarships Not one of the programs covered here requires financial need Plus only programs open to college bound high school seniors are included No more scanning through hundreds of listings that apply to currently enrolled college students not to you In addition the entries here are grouped by discipline so you can go directly to the area you want to study Not sure what your major will be No problem There s even a section listing programs that are open to support studies in any area The High School Senior s Guide provides the only way to find money for college based soley on academic record writing or artistic ability speech making skills athletic success high school club membership religious or ethnic background parents military or organizational activities and even pure luck in random drawings Perhaps that s why College Financial Aid gave the High School Senior s Guide 4 stars its highest rating      High School Senior's Guide to Merit and Other No-need Funding ,2005      The Seattle Times School Guide Katherine Long,2000      National Guide to Funding for Information Technology Gina-Marie Cantarella,1999 This volume represents a valuable source of information for organizations eager to enhance their services with the latest technologies The National Guide provides essential facts on over 400 grantmakers each with a history of awarding grant dollars to projects involving information technology. Imagine the time you will save by having in a single convenient source a list of grantmakers already interested in this field. The National Guide covers all the facts you need to bolster your target list of funding prospects. Each entry provides crucial data: address, financial data, giving priorities, application procedures, contact names and key officials. The volume also includes close to 1,500 descriptions of recently awarded grants, a sure indication of foundation giving interests. A range of indexes will help you target funders by specific program areas favored and geographic areas preferred by grantmakers. Each year the grantmakers featured in this volume award millions of dollars for projects involving computer science, engineering and technology, telecommunications and media and communications to a range of educational institutions and other nonprofit organizations. Don't let your organization miss its share of foundation grant dollars; order your copy today.
