AMERICAN

THE GETTYSBURG ADDRESS

November 19, 1863

Dedication at Soldiers National Cemetery

The Battle of Gettysburg had the greatest number of casualties in the Civil War. After three days of battle, the bodies of more than 1,500 Union soldiers lay scattered across the landscape. Many were buried where they fell. In graves now shallow or withered time and weather. A "Soldiers Cemetery" was soon established near the ground of the Union line at a first meeting place for those who gave their lives to preserve the Union. At the cemetery's formal dedication on November 19, 1863, Abraham Lincoln delivered his most famous speech. In just 172 words, Lincoln summed the meaning of democracy and declared that the "government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."
