Academic Repression Reflections From The Academic Industrial Complex:

Academic Repression Anthony J. Nocella, Steven Best, Peter McLaren, 2010 After 9/11 the Bush administration pressured universities to hand over faculty staff and student work to be flagged for potential threats. This edited anthology brings together hard hitting essays from prominent academics to address the pressing issue of whether academic freedom still exists in the American university system. As such it addresses not only overt attacks on critical thinking but also following trends unfolding for decades that engage the broad socio economic determinants of academic culture.

Peace and Social Justice Education on Campus Luigi Esposito, Kelly Concannon Mannise, 2015-10-28 This book provides important reflections by and for peace and social justice educators working on college campuses. Importantly it also integrates the voices of students. More than a feel good compilation of success stories however it illustrates the complexities inherent in teaching and learning about and for peace and social justice. Chapters in the book provide critical assessments of institutions pedagogies and practices making visible the messy but very real spaces in which education and learning occur. Written by faculty and students from many disciplinary areas the contributions discuss in class and outside of class actions providing a deeper understanding of best practices and challenges faced by both groups. Albeit in different ways that are reflective of the many different pedagogical approaches to peace and justice education each chapter integrates ideas, concepts and reflections from both faculty and students. The conclusion and appendix offer recommendations for future and additional resources for college and university faculty and students interested in learning more about peace and social justice.

The Business of Higher Institutional Education: Integrating Academic Freedom, Pedagogical Approaches and Constitutionalism Wesahl Domingo, Michele van Eck, 2024-12-31 Higher education is facing increasing challenges. Economic and financial pressures have heightened the strain on the sustainability of higher education institutions (HEIs). These pressures have prompted a shift toward adopting business models and commercial practices to maintain institutional operations. While these changes have enabled some innovations they have also placed traditional academic dynamics under significant pressure. After all the commercialisation of HEIs comes with its own challenges and has influenced directly and indirectly academic freedom, constitutional values and established approaches to teaching, learning and research. This co-edited book explores the growing tension between academic freedom and the commercial priorities of HEIs highlighting the challenge of balancing financial sustainability with higher education's function of being centres of knowledge, innovation and social change. Through an analysis of selected legal, academic and operational dimensions this book examines how HEIs can navigate these demands while maintaining their core identity. Organised around three key themes the first focuses on the business and commercial aspects of HEIs analysing how these influence institutional operations. Topics under this theme include issues such as corruption, procurement practices, the use of demand guarantees in construction contracts and the legal nature of the student-university relationship. The second theme examines how the business and commercial focus of HEIs can influence academic freedom Topics under this theme includes an analysis of the rights of academics to freedom of expression and their ability to critique their employers the implications of Ghana s proposed Anti LGBTQ Bill on academic freedom and the effects of disciplinary procedures on academic freedom in Zimbabwean state universities The third theme addresses the impact of commercialisation on teaching learning and pedagogical approaches within HEIs Topics under this theme include the challenges faced by students with disabilities and the role of HEIs in breaking down barriers to inclusion the influence of HEI structures on the decolonisation of international law and the ways in which HEIs responded to the effects of Covid 19 on first year law students at the University of Johannesburg The academic contribution in this book highlights that HEIs serve a critical social function that goes beyond profit making or financial viability This social responsibility rooted in knowledge creation and societal advancement should remain the primary focus Although commercialisation is an unavoidable reality HEIs should ultimately prioritise their social mandate over profit driven objectives ensuring that their core mission is not overshadowed by commercial imperatives     Critical University Tanya Loughead,2015-11-06 What way forward for the contemporary university Critical University Moving Higher Education Forward traverses fields in critical theory Marcuse Althusser psychoanalysis Kristeva Freud phenomenology Husserl and the philosophy of education predominantly Freire and hooks to analyze the direction forward for the contemporary university Loughead s writing style is lucid and accessible yet provocative She aims first and foremost for a pedagogical engagement with the reader avoiding or explicating clearly the specialized vocabulary of her discipline Though this book deals with complex philosophical ideas its goal is not to merely tease out some abstract philosophical problem but instead to intervene and provoke new directions in the contemporary discussion of the university in crisis and to be part of a collection of works inspiring a more just society     Abolition Feminisms Vol. 2 Alisa Bierria,Brooke Lober,Jakeya Caruthers,2022-11-08 In this expansive companion to Abolition Feminisms Vol I contributors confront multiple paradigms of punitivity the foundational logics of family borders heterosexuality colonial violence and more to disengage us from root systems of carcerality The book transcends various modes and forms through grassroots praxis critical research storytelling diagrams poetry and visual art these pieces build on the legacies of feminist thinkers who formulated abolitionist critiques of policing surveillance and control The resulting framework provides readers with the resources to cultivate and inhabit a post carceral world of radical freedom and possibility     The Bible as Political Artifact Susanne Sholza,2017-10-15 Biblical studies and the teaching of biblical studies are clearly changing though it is less clear what the changes mean and how we should evaluate them Susanne Scholz casts a feminist eye on the politics of pedagogy higher education and wider society decrypting important developments in the architecture of educational power She also examines how the increasingly intercultural interreligious and diasporic dynamics in society inform the hermeneutical and methodological possibilities for biblical exegesis Taken as a whole the fourteen chapters demonstrate that the foregrounding of gender placed into its intersectional contexts offers intriguing and valuable alternative ways of seeing the world and the Bible's place in it America's Addiction to Terrorism Henry A. Giroux, 2015-12-22 In the United States today the term terrorism conjures up images of dangerous outside threats religious extremists and suicide bombers in particular Harder to see but all the more pervasive is the terrorism perpetuated by the United States itself whether through military force overseas or woven into the very fabric of society at home Henry Giroux in this passionate and incisive book turns the conventional wisdom on terrorism upside down demonstrating how fear and lawlessness have become organizing principles of life in the United States and violence an acceptable form of social mediation He addresses the most pressing issues of the moment from officially sanctioned torture to militarized police forces to austerity politics Giroux also examines the ongoing degradation of the education system and how young people in particular suffer its more nefarious outcomes Against this grim picture Giroux posits a politics of hope and a commitment to accurate and radical historical memory He draws on a long distinguished career developing the tenets of critical pedagogy to propose a cure for our addiction to terrorism a kind of public pedagogy that challenges the poisoned narratives of America's dis imagination machine Universities in the Business of Repression Jonathan Feldman, 1989 This book is an essential guide for students and academics seeking to expose university complicity with militarism and repression in the Third World Presents an activist strategy for selective divestment modeled on the experience of the campus based anti apartheid movement Recasting the World Jonathan White, 1993 In Recasting the World Jonathan White brings together a distinguished group of contributors to examine aspects of postcolonial literatures in English from around the world

Educational Perspectives, 2013 The Imperial University Piya Chatterjee, Sunaina Maira, 2014-04-15 At colleges and universities throughout the United States political protest and intellectual dissent are increasingly being met with repressive tactics by administrators politicians and the police from the use of SWAT teams to disperse student protestors and the profiling of Muslim and Arab American students to the denial of tenure and dismissal of politically engaged faculty The Imperial University brings together scholars including some who have been targeted for their open criticism of American foreign policy and settler colonialism to explore the policing of knowledge by explicitly linking the academy to the broader politics of militarism racism nationalism and neoliberalism that define the contemporary imperial state The contributors to this book argue that academic freedom is not a sufficient response to the crisis of intellectual repression Instead they contend that battles fought over academic containment must be understood in light of the academy's relationship to U.S. expansionism and global capital Based on multidisciplinary research autobiographical accounts and even performance scripts this urgent analysis offers sobering insights into such varied manifestations of the imperial university as CIA recruitment at black and Latino colleges the connections between universities and civilian and military prisons and the gender and sexual politics of academic repression Contributors Thomas Abowd Tufts U Victor Bascara UCLA Dana Collins California State U Fullerton Nicholas De Genova Ricardo Dominguez UC San Diego Sylvanna Falcón UC Santa Cruz Farah Godrej UC Riverside
