

Notes

	"Yes, these the dice, and the bad luck fell to me. So here I am... Nobody likes the man who brings bad news."
	"If we must lose, let's lose to a man, at least. Is a woman stronger than we?"
	"There is no happiness... but in submission to the gods. Big words are always punished, and proud men in old age learn to be wiser."

Handbook of Administrative Ethics Terry Cooper,2019-02-21 Delineating implications for administrative ethics from other fields such as sociology psychology and philosophy this reference provides a comprehensive review of administrative ethics in the public sector Detailing the context within which contemporary ethics training has developed the book examines the effectiveness of ethics training legal and organizational devices for encouraging desired conduct and other topics of particular relevance to the political and social contexts of public administration Written by over 25 leading scholars in public administration ethics the book creates a taxonomy for administrative ethics using the categories of modern philosophy

The Experience of Tragic Judgement Julen Etxabe,2013 Adjudication between conflicting normative universes that do not share the same vocabulary standards of rationality and moral commitments cannot be resolved by recourse to traditional principles Such cases are always in a sense tragic And what is called for in our pluralistic and conflictual world is not to be found as many would suppose in an impersonal set of procedures with which all participants could be treated as having rationally agreed The very idea of such a neutral system is an illusion Rather what is needed Julen Etxabe argues in this book is a heightened awareness of the difficulty of judgment The Experience of Tragic Judgment draws upon Sophocles play Antigone in order to consider this difficulty and the virtues that attend its acknowledgment Based on the transformative experience that the audience undergoes in engaging with this play what is proposed is a reconceptualization of judgment not as it is generally thought to occur in a single isolated moment like the falling of an axe but rather as an experience that develops in and through space and time

Handbook of Public Administration, Second Edition W. Bartley Hildreth,Gerald J. Miller,Jack Rabin,1997-09-19 This bestselling reference examines all major areas in public administration from the enlightening perspectives of history and the five great concepts or theories framing each topic including public budgeting financial management decision making public law and regulation and political economy The American Reference Books Annual calls this stimulating and thought provoking thorough and inclusive a valuable contribution and Canadian Public Administration said it is impressive an extremely useful reference tool the writing and analysis and the scope of the coverage make the volume a good investment for both government and university
