unforgettable work offers a gem of truth on every page Maya Angelou speaks out On Faith I m taken aback when people walk up to me and tell me they are Christians My first response is the question Already It seems to me a lifelong endeavor to try to live the life of a Christian It is in the search itself that one finds ecstasy On Racism It is time for parents to teach young people early on that in diversity there is beauty and there is strength We all should know that diversity makes for a rich tapestry and we must understand that all the threads of the tapestry are equal in value no matter their color On Taking Time for Ourselves Each person deserves a day away in which no problems are confronted no solutions searched for Each of us needs to withdraw from the cares which will not withdraw from us A day away acts as a spring tonic It can dispel rancor transform indecision and renew the spirit On Death and Grieving When I sense myself filling with rage at the absence of a beloved I try as soon as possible to remember that my concerns should be focused on what I can learn from my departed love What legacy was left which can help me in the art of living a good life On Style Style is as unique and nontransferable and perfectly personal as a fingerprint It is wise to take the time to develop one s own way of being increasing those things one does well and eliminating the elements in one s character which can hinder and diminish the good personality
