Contemporary Fictions of Attention Alice Bennett, 2018-08-09 With the supposed shortening of our attention spans what future is there for fiction in the age of the internet Contemporary Fictions of Attention rejects this discourse of distraction crisis which suggests that the future of reading is in peril and instead finds that contemporary writers construct fictions of attention that find some value in states or moments of inattention Through discussion of work by a diverse selection of writers including Joshua Cohen Ben Lerner Tom McCarthy Ali Smith Zadie Smith and David Foster Wallace this book identifies how fiction prompts readers to become peripherally aware of their own attention Contemporary Fictions of Attention locates a common interest in attention within 21st century fiction and connects this interest to a series of debates surrounding ethics temporality the everyday boredom work and self discipline in contemporary culture Handbook of the English Novel of the Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries Christoph Reinfandt, 2017-06-12 The Handbook systematically charts the trajectory of the English novel from its emergence as the foremost literary genre in the early twentieth century to its early twenty first century status of eccentric eminence in new media environments Systematic chapters address The English Novel as a Distinctly Modern Genre The Novel in the Economy Genres Gender performativity masculinities feminism queer and The Burden of Representation class and ethnicity Extended contextualized close readings of more than twenty key texts from Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness 1899 to Tom McCarthy's Satin Island 2015 supplement the systematic approach and encourage future research by providing overviews of reception and theoretical perspectives

Transcending the Postmodern Susana Onega, Jean-Michel Ganteau, 2020-03-04 Transcending the Postmodern The Singular Response of Literature to the Transmodern Paradigm gathers an introduction and ten chapters concerned with the issue of Transmodernity as addressed by and presented in contemporary novels hailing from various parts of the English speaking world Building on the theories of Transmodernity propounded by Rosa María Rodríguez Magda Enrique Dussel Marc Luyckx Ghisi and Irena Ateljevic inter alia it investigates the links between Transmodernity and such categories as Postmodernity Postcolonialism and Transculturalism with a view to help define a new current in contemporary literary production The chapters either follow the main theoretical drives of the transmodern paradigm or problematise them In so doing they branch out towards various issues that have come to inspire contemporary novelists among which the presence of the past the ascendance of new technologies multiculturalism terrorism and also vulnerability interdependence solidarity and ecology in a globalised context In so doing it interrogates the ethics aesthetics and politics of the contemporary novel in English

Critical Modesty in Contemporary Fiction Thom Dancer, 2021 From climate catastrophe to pandemics and economic crises the problems facing humanity are dizzyingly complex and increasingly planetary in scale Critical Modesty in Contemporary Fiction argues for contemporary fiction's capacity to help those who may feel despair at the enormity of such problems not as one might think through the ambitious search for grand solutions but rather by inculcating a temperament of modesty This new temperament of critical modesty locates the fight for freedom and human dignity within the limited and compromised conditions in which we find ourselves Through readings of Ian McEwan Zadie Smith J M Coetzee and David Mitchell this volume shows how contemporary works of literature model modesty as a critical temperament Exploring modest forms of entangled human agency that represent an alternative to the novel of the large scale that have been most closely associated with the Anthropocene it makes the surprising yet compelling case that precisely by adopting a modest stance the novel actually has the potential to play a more important socio cultural role In doing so the book offers an engaging response to the debate over critical and surface readings bringing novels into the conversation and arguing for a fictional mode that is both critical and modest reminding us how much we are already engaged with the world implicated and compromised before we start developing theories writing stories or acting within it

His employers advise everyone from big businesses to governments and to this end expect their corporate anthropologist to help decode and manipulate the world around them all the more so now that a giant epoch defining project is in the offing Instead U spends his days procrastinating meandering through endless buffer zones of information and becoming obsessed by the images with which the world bombards him on a daily basis oil spills African traffic jams roller blade processions zombie parades Is there U wonders a secret logic holding all these images together a codex that once cracked will unlock the master meaning of our age Might it have something to do with South Pacific Cargo Cults or the dead parachutists in the news Perhaps perhaps not As U oscillates between the visionary and the vague brilliance and bullshit Satin Island emerges an impassioned and exquisite novel for our disjointed times Britannica Book of the Year Franklin Henry Hooper,2016
