

THE BOOK OF ENOCH

translation by M. Knibb of the Ethiopian text in the S.O.A.S. Library at the University of London.

Section I. Chapters I-XXXVI BOOK OF THE WATCHERS

1.1 These are the words of the blessing of Enoch; according to which he blessed the chosen and righteous who must be present on the day of distress, which is appointed, for the removal of all the wicked and impious.

1.2 And Enoch began his story and said:

There was a righteous man whose eyes were opened by the Lord, and he saw a Holy vision in the Heavens, which the Angels showed to me. And I heard everything from them, and I understood what I saw; but not for this generation, but for a distant generation that will come.

1.3 Concerning the Chosen I spoke; and I uttered a parable concerning them: The Holy and Great One will come out of his dwelling.

1.4 And the Eternal God will tread from there upon Mount Sinai, and he will appear with his Host, and will appear in the strength of his power from Heaven.

1.5 And all will be afraid, and the Watchers will shake, and fear and great trembling will seize them, up to the ends of the earth.

1.6 And the high mountains will be shaken; and the high hills will be laid low and will melt like wax in a flame.

1.7 And the earth will sink, and everything that is on the earth will be destroyed, and there will be judgment upon all, and upon all the righteous.

1.8 But for the righteous: He will make peace, and He will keep safe the Chosen, and mercy will be upon them.

They will all belong to God, and will prosper and be blessed, and the light of God will shine on them.

1.9 And behold! He comes with ten thousand Holy Ones; to execute judgment upon them and to destroy the impious, and to contend with all flesh concerning everything that the sinners and the impious have done and wrought against Him.

2.1 Contemplate all the events in the sky: how the lights in the sky do not change their courses, how each rises and sets in order, each at its proper time, and they do not transgress their law.

2.2 Consider the earth and understand from the work that is done upon it, from the beginning to the end, that no work of God changes as it becomes manifest.

2.3 Consider the summer and the winter; how the whole earth is full of water and the clouds and dew and rain rest upon it.

3.1 Contemplate and see how all the trees appear withered and all their leaves are stripped - with the exception of the fourteen trees, which are not stripped, which remain with the old leaves until the new come after two or three years.

4.1 And, again, contemplate the days of summer; how at its beginning the Sun is above it. You seek shelter and shade because of the heat of the Sun and the earth burns with scorching heat, and you cannot tread upon the earth or upon a rock, because of its heat.

The Dead Sea Genesis Apocryphon Daniel A. Machiela,2009

The so called Genesis Apocryphon 1Q20 from Qumran Cave 1 has suffered from decades of neglect due in large part to its poor state of preservation As part of a resurgent scholarly interest in the Apocryphon and its prominent position among the Aramaic Dead Sea Scrolls this volume presents a fresh transcription translation and extensive textual notes drawing on close study of the original manuscript all available photographs and previous publications In addition a detailed analysis of columns 13 15 and their relation to the oft cited parallel in the Book of Jubilees reveals a number of ways in which the two works differ thereby highlighting several distinctive features of the Genesis Apocryphon The result is a reliable text edition and a fuller understanding of the message conveyed by this fragmentary but fascinating retelling of Genesis

Embodiment of Divine Knowledge in Early Judaism

Andrei A. Orlov,2021-11-11 This book explores the early Jewish understanding of divine knowledge as divine presence which is embodied in major biblical exemplars such as Adam Enoch Jacob and Moses The study treats the concept of divine knowledge as the embodied divine presence in its full historical and interpretive complexity by tracing the theme through a broad variety of ancient Near Eastern and Jewish sources including Mesopotamian traditions of cultic statues creation narratives of the Hebrew Bible and later Jewish mystical testimonies Orlov demonstrates that some biblical and pseudepigraphical accounts postulate that the theophany expresses the unique corporeal nature of the deity that cannot be fully grasped or conveyed in some other non corporeal symbolism medium or language The divine presence requires another presence in order to be transmitted To be communicated properly and in its full measure the divine iconic knowledge must be written on a new living body which can hold the ineffable presence of God through a newly acquired ontology Embodiment of Divine Knowledge in Early Judaism will provide an invaluable research to students and scholars in a wide range of areas within Jewish Near Eastern and Biblical Studies as well as those studying religious elements of anthropology philosophy sociology psychology and gender studies Through the study of Jewish mediatorial figures this book also elucidates the roots of early Christological developments making it attractive to Christian audiences A Dictionary of the Bible Dealing with Its Language, Literature, and Contents, Including the Biblical Theology: Pleroma-Zuzim James Hastings,John Alexander Selbie,Andrew Bruce Davidson,Samuel Rolles Driver,Henry Barclay Swete,1906 A Dictionary of the Bible: Pleroma-Zuzim James Hastings,John Alexander Selbie,Andrew Bruce Davidson,Samuel Rolles Driver,Henry Barclay Swete,1902
