Book And Cinematic Ethics Exploring Ethical Experience:

Cinematic Ethics Robert Sinnerbrink, 2015-10-23 How do movies evoke and express ethical ideas What role does our emotional involvement play in this process What makes the aesthetic power of cinema ethically significant Cinematic Ethics Exploring Ethical Experience through Film addresses these questions by examining the idea of cinema as a medium of ethical experience with the power to provoke emotional understanding and philosophical thinking In a clear and engaging style Robert Sinnerbrink examines the key philosophical approaches to ethics in contemporary film theory and philosophy using detailed case studies of cinematic ethics across different genres styles and filmic traditions Written in a lucid and lively style that will engage both specialist and non specialist readers this book is ideal for use in the academic study of philosophy and film Key features include annotated suggestions for further reading at the end of each chapter and a filmography of movies useful for teaching and researching cinematic ethics

Emotions, Ethics, and Cinematic Experience

Robert Sinnerbrink, 2021-06-11 Since the early 1990s phenomenology and cognitivism have become two of the most influential approaches to film theory Yet far from being at odds with each other both approaches offer important insights on our subjective experience of cinema Emotions Ethics and Cinematic Experience explores how these two approaches might work together to create a philosophy of film that is both descriptively rich and theoretically productive by addressing the key relationship between cinematic experience emotions and ethics

Mapping Precarity in Contemporary Cinema and Television

Francesco Sticchi, 2021-02-11 This book examines a corpus of films and TV series released since the global financial crisis addressing them as emblematic expressions of our age of precarity The analysis of the motifs and characters of these case studies is built around notions originating from Mikhail Bakhtin s literary theory and in particular the concept of chronotope affirming the material and dynamic connection between form and content in artistic experience This book observes how precarious lives are enacted in forms of spatio temporal compositions which carry conceptual and ethical challenges for their viewers This book falls within the film philosophy framework and although primarily directed to an academic audience it provides an interdisciplinary account of the notion of cinematic precarity It puts the embodied analysis of viewers ethical participation in close dialogical relationship with a philosophical and sociological examination of current dynamics of inequality and exclusion

Film Phenomenologies Kelli Fuery, 2024-09-30 With an interdisciplinary agenda Film Phenomenologies investigates the emerging field of film phenomenology linking the fundamental significance of early thinkers and related methods of phenomenological investigation to newer emphases and diverse voices such as Gaston Bachelard Karen Barad Simone de Beauvoir bell hooks Iris Murdoch and Hermann Schmitz Established scholars consider various themes including colonial duration and the politics of refusal feeling feminist time the exchange of play scalar theory and scattered bodies spectatorship and the entanglement of montage disability dance and speculative embodiment AI phenomenology and breath gestures cinematic atmospheres the precarious intimacy of the film screen stardom and biopics and Black lived experience Divided into three parts Film Phenomenologies offers a collective combination of phenomenological approaches braiding classic and critical methods to explore aesthetic embodied ethical and political perspectives It is the first collection to provide a substantial engagement with diverse and inclusive directions in the field of film and media studies Philosophy and Film Christina Rawls,Diana Neiva,Steven S. Gouveia,2019-04-25 This volume collects twenty original essays on the philosophy of film It uniquely brings together scholars working across a range of philosophical traditions and academic disciplines to broaden and advance debates on film and philosophy The book includes contributions from a number of prominent philosophers of film including Noël Carroll Chris Falzon Deborah Knight Paisley Livingston Robert Sinnerbrink Malcolm Turvey and Thomas Wartenberg While the topics explored by the contributors are diverse there are a number of thematic threads that connect them Overall the book seeks to bridge analytic and continental approaches to philosophy of film in fruitful ways Moving to the individual essays the first two sections offer novel takes on the philosophical value and the nature of film The next section focuses on the film as philosophy debate Section IV covers cinematic experience while Section V includes interpretations of individual films that touch on questions of artificial intelligence race and film and cinema's biopolitical potential Finally the last section proposes new avenues for future research on the moving image beyond film This book will appeal to a broad range of scholars working in film studies theory and philosophy What Film Is Good For Julian Hanich,Martin P. Rossouw,2023-09-05 For well over a century going to the movies has been a favorite pastime for billions across the globe But is film actually good for anything This volume brings together thirty six scholars critics and filmmakers in search of an answer Their responses range from the most personal to the most theoretical and together recast current debates about film ethics Movie watching here emerges as a wellspring of value able to sustain countless visions of the good life Films these authors affirm make us reflect connect adapt they evoke wonder and beauty they challenge and transform In a word its varieties of value make film invaluable

New Philosophies of Film Robert Sinnerbrink,2022-07-28 What can philosophy teach us about cinema Can cinema transform how we understand philosophy How should we describe the competing approaches to philosophizing on film New Philosophies of Film answers these questions by offering a lucid introduction to the exciting developments and contentious debates within the philosophy of film Mapping out the conceptual terrain it examines both analytic and continental approaches to cinema and puts forward a pluralist film philosophy grounded in practical examples from film documentaries and television series Now thoroughly updated to showcase the most recent developments in the field this 2nd edition features New chapters on phenomenology cinematic ethics philosophical documentary film and television as philosophy incorporating feminist socio political ethical and ecological approaches to cinema Contemporary case studies including Carol Roma Melancholia two Derrida documentaries and the Netflix series Black Mirror Expanded coverage of Gilles Deleuze and Stanley Cavell two of the most influential philosophers of film An updated bibliography filmography and reading lists with links to online resources

Terrence Malick Robert Sinnerbrink, 2019-07-11 Many critics have approached Terrence Malick's work from a philosophical perspective arguing that his films express philosophy through cinema With their remarkable images of nature poetic voiceovers and meditative reflections Malick's cinema certainly invites philosophical engagement. In Terrence Malick Filmmaker and Philosopher Robert Sinnerbrink takes a different approach exploring Malick's work as a case of cinematic ethics films that evoke varieties of ethical experience encompassing existential metaphysical and religious perspectives. Malick's films are not reducible to a particular moral position or philosophical doctrine rather they solicit ethically significant forms of experience encompassing anxiety and doubt wonder and awe to questioning and acknowledgment through aesthetic engagement and poetic reflection. Drawing on a range of thinkers and approaches from Heidegger and Cavell Nietzsche and Kierkegaard to phenomenology and moral psychology Sinnerbrink explores how Malick's films respond to the problem of nihilism the loss of conviction or belief in prevailing forms of value and meaning and the possibility of ethical transformation through cinema from self transformation in our relations with others to cultural transformation via our attitudes towards towards nature and the world. Sinnerbrink shows how Malick's later films from The Tree of Life to Voyage of Time provide unique opportunities to explore cinematic ethics in relation to the crisis of belief the phenomenology of love and film's potential to invite moral transformation

Ethics from Experience Peter Caws, 1996 The development of moral theory is conducted here in unusually revealing ways in conjunction with an account of scientific theory and method. Moral agency operates in a world whose structure and behavior must be known if action is to be responsible. Traditional ways of teaching ethics pay little attention to the hard facts in the environment of action

Signs of Life Graeme Harper, Andrew Moor, 2005

Signs of Life Medicine and Cinema is the first single volume to consider the cinematic representation of medicine medical science and the medical profession and explores the political implications of the representations of doctors nurses patients diseases and disabilities. The essays in this collection from a wide range of film scholars and medical practitioners also consider how formal qualities of cinema such as empirical observation mise en scène propaganda and education melodrama documentary and narrative construction impact on our understanding of medical procedures and the public image of medicine
