Adventures of Bunny Rabbit is a collection of stories with animal characters. The stories are suitable for children between the age of 6 to 9 years. Each story has beautiful hand-drawn artwork to keep the child engaged. The stories in this book are designed with emphasis on themes like friendship, courage, thinking out of the box, forgiveness, and life lessons. None of our stories highlight cruelty. Each story is between 1000-1200 words and includes artwork. The book features a total of eight stories. This book was designed by the author for his daughter who is fond of stories. The stories are the result of honest imagination of his daughter and countless arguments on choice and naming of characters. It also draws inspiration from old folk stories that the author's grandmother told him during his childhood.

Once upon a time there was a big forest. There were many animals in this forest. There were zebras, elephants, rabbits, deer, bears, horses, pigs, lions, tigers, etc. All animals had built houses for themselves in the forest. Some animals like elephants had big houses, small animals like rabbits had built burrows under the trees. Giraffe had a very tall house and so on. The animals also had built a park for kids to play. Every morning the animals went to the deep forest to gather food and work, whereas the kid animals played in the park. Uncle Jeffy Giraffe used to watch the park and the kids. Everyone lived peacefully in this forest. One day the animals were out gathering food and the kids were playing in the park. A black bear named Bully came to the park near the gate. Uncle Jeffy Giraffe saw him and asked him where do you think you are going. Bear replied To the park to play. Jeffy Giraffe said This park is only for kids you cannot go inside. Go home. Bully bear tried a lot but Uncle Jeffy Giraffe didn't let him enter the park. Disappointed and angry bear returned to his house. Bully bear lived in the next forest. When he arrived his place where he lived he met his friends. His friends noticed that he was very angry. They enquired what happened. Bully bear replied I went to the nearby forest and I saw a beautiful park. I wanted to go inside and play but the gatekeeper giraffe didn't let me go inside. I am so angry now. His friends were curious. One of them said looks like it is an awesome park. Even I would love to go there and play. He continued let's go in group. We are total thirty bears. If we all go together then no one can stop us. We will ruin the entire park. What do you say. Bully bear got excited and agreed. They did not realize that Mikka monkey who was sitting on the tree was listening to everything that they were planning. Mikka monkey was a good monkey. He thought if these bears go there they will destroy the park. It's a good park and the animals who live there are also very friendly. I should go and inform them. What happens next.
