Introduction to Instructed Second Language Acquisition Shawn Loewen,2020-03-09 Now in its second edition Introduction to Instructed Second Language Acquisition continues to present a cohesive view of the different theoretical and pedagogical perspectives that comprise instructed second language acquisition ISLA Loewen provides comprehensive discussions of the theoretical empirical and pedagogical aspects of a range of key issues in ISLA and has added to this edition a comprehensive exploration of the relationship between ISLA research and second language pedagogy Also new is the addition of supporting features including new end of chapter activities points for reflection and discussion questions as well as thoroughly revised content to reflect the most recent research in ISLA This is an essential resource for students new to ISLA or working in second language acquisition more generally The Complexity of Relationships in Action Research Ben Boog,1998 The relationship between researchers and research is of great importance to action researchers It is usually characterized as dialogical recognizing the competencies of both groups of actors involved But in theory as well as in practice it appears to be a very complex issue The aim of this third book of the Dutch Action Research Network is to discuss a number of aspects related to that complexity A great mixture of experiences new insights concepts and methodological devices is presented In the last part of this book a number of methodological issues are analyzed The book ends with some general conclusions about the strategic role of adequate relationships in action research Handbook of Research on User Interface Design and Evaluation for Mobile Technology ,2008 This book provides students researchers educators and practitioners with a compendium of research on the key issues surrounding the design and evaluation of mobile user interfaces such as the physical environment and social context in which a device is being used and the impact of multitasking behavior typically exhibited by mobile device users Provided by publisher Agricultural Research and Extension Interface in Asia ,1999 The Soviet Past in the Post-Socialist Present Melanie Ilic,Dalia Leinarte,2015-07-03 This collection examines practical and ethical issues inherent in the application of oral history and memory studies to research about the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe since the collapse of the Soviet bloc Case studies highlight the importance of ethical good practice including the reflexive interrogation of the interviewer and researcher and aspects of gender and national identity Researchers use oral history to analyze present day recollections of the Soviet past thereby extending our understanding beyond archival records official rhetoric and popular mythology Oral history explores individual life stories but this has sometimes resulted in rather incomplete incoherent inconsistent or illogical narratives Oral history therefore presents the researcher with a number of methodological and ethical dilemmas including the interpretation of silence in biographical accounts This collection links the discussion of oral history ethics with that of memory studies Memories are shaped by factors that may be simultaneously both consecutive and disrupted In written accounts and responses to interview questions respondents sometimes display nostalgia for the Soviet past or conversely may seek to de mythologize the realities of Soviet rule Case studies explore what to do when interview subjects and memoirists consciously sub consciously or unconsciously forget aspects of their own past or themselves seek to take control of the research process Muslim-Christian Encounters in Africa Benjamin F.
