power to change history      The brotherhood of the new life, by Resspiro Edward William Berridge,1896      Thirty Thousand Thoughts: Christian dogmatics (concluded) Henry Donald Maurice Spence-Jones, Joseph Samuel Exell, Charles Neil, 1903      The Hidden Life of the Soul Jean Nicolas Grou, H. L. Sidney Lear, 1889      His personal presence; or, The secret of a bright and fragrant life Thomas William Thomas, 1885      The New Life Andrew Murray, 1891      *The hidden life of the soul [by J.N. From the Fr. by the author of A Dominican artist Jean Nicolas Grou, 1870      The Hidden Life Adolph Saphir, 1877

Adolph Saphir's classic meditation on chapter four verse eight of the Book of James is treasured for its poignant spiritual assessment of the New Testament. Draw near to God and he will draw near to you is the message at the heart of The Hidden Life. For the author these words summarize most perfectly the exactness of God's message through the New Testament. With this as his basis, Adolph Saphir proceeds to discuss how to live with the Holy Trinity in mind. Yet his contemplations are rich in their variety; he visits such topics as Eastern mysticism found in religions of India and Islam, the discussions between God and Biblical figures such as Nicodemus, and the message brought by Christ to humankind. The meditations herein are supported by references to chapters of the New Testament together with a variety of quotations from spiritual authors of antiquity and early modern times. Though his inquiry is winding with touches of eclecticism, Saphir never loses sight of the objective: growing closer to the spiritual essence of the Lord and Jesus Christ. The Saphir family converted from Judaism to Christianity when Adolph was a child. Intellectually apt, Adolph gained a Master's degree from Glasgow University and went on to serve as a minister and missionary of some renown in the 19th century. Glasgow University made him an honorary Doctor of Divinity in 1878.

New Every Morning Donald Ernest Mansell, 1981. A collection of devotional readings for Junior Youth for every day of the year, each recalling an event from the recent or remote past which took place on that date. Daily readings for January 1 to December 31, each recalling an event from the recent or remote past which took place on that date.      Possessed Donald Spoto, 2010-11-09. Joan Crawford was one of the most incandescent film stars of all time, yet she was also one of the most misunderstood. In this brilliantly researched, thoughtful, and intimate biography, bestselling author Donald Spoto goes beyond the popular caricature of the abusive, unstable mother portrayed in her adopted daughter Christina Crawford's memoir Mommie Dearest to give us a three-dimensional portrait of a very human woman: her dazzling career and her extraordinarily dramatic life and times. Based on new archival information and exclusive interviews, and written with Spoto's keen eye for detail, Possessed offers a fascinating portrait of a courageous, highly sexed, and ambitious woman whose strength and drive made her a forerunner in the fledgling film business. From her hard-scrabble childhood in Texas to her early days as a dancer in post-World War I New York to her rise to stardom, Spoto traces Crawford's fifty years of memorable performances in classics like Rain, The Women, Mildred Pierce, and Sudden Fear, which are as startling and vivid today as when they were filmed. In

Possessed Spoto goes behind the myths to examine the rise and fall of the studio system Crawford's four marriages her passionate thirty year on and off again affair with Clark Gable her friendships and rivalries with other stars her powerful desire to become a mother the truth behind the scathing stories in her daughter Christina's memoir and her final years as a widow battling cancer Spoto explores Crawford's achievements as an actress her work with Hollywood's great directors Frank Borzage George Cukor Otto Preminger and actors Henry Fonda James Stewart Spencer Tracy John Barrymore and later her role as a highly effective executive on the board of directors of Pepsi Cola Illuminating and entertaining Possessed is the definitive biography of this remarkable woman and true legend of film
