Bunker Z The Beginning Surviving The Apocolypse:

Organize & Create Discipline Justin Klosky, 2013-12-26 A professional organizer's complete guide to getting and staying organized. As a child Justin Klosky loved to count, analyze, and categorize everything in sight. Eventually diagnosed with OCD, he found ways to tap the benefits of his condition. Today he's founded a successful firm, O C D Experience, building on the principles of Organize Create Discipline to help high-end clients take control of their lives through time management skills, getting rid of clutter, simplifying their habits, and rethinking storage solutions. Carefully arranged into more than 300 A to Z categories, Organize Create Discipline explains organization methods for everything from laundry to legal documents, shoes, toys, kitchen drawers, medicine cabinets, utility closets, overflowing email inboxes, and dozens of other sources of daily detritus. Klosky's unique advice yields peace of mind and radically improves productivity. With a clientele that includes Bryce Dallas Howard, Julie Chen, and Saks Fifth Avenue, Klosky now makes his unrivaled techniques to staying organized available to all.

Exploring Children's Literature Nikki Gamble, Sally Yates, 2008-02-20 This book is based on the belief that deep subject knowledge of language and literature provides a foundation for effective teaching and learning. It provides a comprehensive guide to the range of genres and characteristic features of English language fiction written for children. It will help readers to develop their understanding of literature within social, cultural, and political reading practices, to extend their knowledge of language features and conventions of different genres, to develop skills in analytical and critical reading. The scope of the first edition has been expanded from solely fiction to cover a range of contemporary literature, including poetry, plays and picture books. The case study material, investigative activities and practical exercises promote an active approach to learning. The second edition focuses on a range of fiction relevant to the National Curriculum for England and the National Literacy Strategy. It provides examples from a range of world literature written in English. Examples from work in translation are also included. It also addresses the requirements of the primary curriculum for ITT English. This book is essential reading for student teachers on PGCE and undergraduate teacher education courses and for teachers undertaking CPD in English literacy or children's literature. It provides useful support material for language coordinators, SCITT coordinators and literacy consultants.

The Film Lover's Companion David Quinlan, 1997 This unique treasury provides information on 2 000 stars and the movies they made from the early silent films to today. For each star old or new there is a concise biography and complete chronological list of all movie and TV appearances. Included are triumphs and disasters alike as well as Academy Award nominations and prizes. Each entry is accompanied by a photograph of the star at the height of his or her career or in a typical role. Both the old and the new of cinema are found within these pages: Bette Davis, William Powell, Marlene Dietrich, John Wayne, Carole Lombard, Richard Burton, Clint Eastwood, Robert De Niro, Robin Williams, Winona Ryder, Kevin Costner, and Christopher Walken, among hundreds of others. From the obscure Gloria Talbott to the mega famous Tom Cruise, from the award winners Tom Hanks to the never nominated Edward G. Robinson, from the classics Buster Keaton to the luminaries of
